Overview

New Moon in Cancer
 Friday July 9th 9:18 PM 2021 EST

"Truth is like a fudge brownie, I can't get enough."

Our human experience is a sacred sensual organic experience. Those who can tune into this truth will receive everything they need to know and understand in regards to what is occurring in our world today. Acknowledging the sacredness of being human as in we are a living bridge of love and light connecting the heavens to the local physical realms acts as a key centering for the spiritual individual. There is a steadiness, a foundational security which issues to us the most precious sense of comfort. It is her, the Earth and all she means which we can tune into. As she makes her big show, sings her big song, and dances her sensual dance, we too are sensually invited. The sacred meaning behind our sensuality is a magical invitation sitting right there in front of our hearts.

Spirit journeys in the dream state can become quite regular. There is a sacred connection with the Earth which is infusing Spirit and many are paralleling this sensual awakening. In the dream state we may hitch a ride and discover how the Earth is intimately connected with the stars. We can set our intentions and be along for the ride, and make sure we tune our organic spaceship to yummmie! Many things are coming alive it's as if ancient suppressed memories are being reactivated. We may begin to know who we are as sensual creatures in a different way, from a different perspective? Our memory of how it feels to be a sensual organic creature may be enhanced. Our ability to feel the magic of organic living, to feel the natural synthesis and symbiotic mutual resonance which is constantly active between all Earth creatures, to know this as a sensual experience, will continue to awaken. All three Earth zodiac signs are being awakened, what was assumed to be physical, to be practical, to be imperial, to be real, all these assumed truths are quickly becoming notions. Our ability to accept life as a field or wave like dynamic as opposed to a physical solid thing will assist as we are introduced to this new magical Earth. For many memories are pouring in, this is a familiar place. For some they will precursor these awakenings in the dream state. Things are coming alive in ways never expected, humanity is merging with a creature hood domain of green and sunshine. This is a good time to birth a playful self who loves natural nature living. We can picture our rebirth as an egg becoming a chick or as a seed becoming a tree, we can see ourselves giving birth to ourselves. The new Moon in Cancer can offer individual's an opportunity to embrace a version of self which brings the individual a sense of comfort and joy. As this Moon cycle will be followed by Moon cycles in Leo then Virgo, we can choose to make a commitment to ourselves being here and following it through the process of being substantiated as personally significant, Leo, and responsible, Virgo, and yet born now, Cancer.

"Humm" One may ask themselves why a particular idea is being so heavily marketed? If an idea or some agenda is getting all the weight in the world one may perhaps get curious as to why this is so. The explanation, does it fit the actions? Is there something fishy going on?? Some may choose to snore and ignore, to feel not so real, leave out heart felt doubt, and go for the weight, the marketing carrot, the smelly fish. As the new Moon cycle beings on July 9th and carries on through August 8th our actions, what will be our motivation? The inclination toward parental concern is certainly supported as well as a serious interest in one's self respect and dignity. And for those who are of this type, parentally on purpose, the strength of their self respect will hugely affect their effectiveness at being parental. Self respect and parenting are kind of being married here. Those who have great pride and dignity in their family or their home domestic experience these individuals will be strong and hopefully affective as they tend to their priority, their home and family. There are wonderful spiritual parallels which will open and resonate. The abuse of children, as a global issue, will for example be under great conflict as parental energy is given the power of birth during this Moon cycle. Protecting children, looking out for the innocent, this can be like a T.N.T. powder keg right now. If and when abuse is discovered action will be taken. You can market whatever the heck you want, however you lay a hand on their children that's another matter. Is as if an inhuman fake human agenda is being revealed while the parental impulse is calling real humanity into action.

The fire signs are well represented as well this Moon cycle. The most glaring is Juno's retrograde position and motion in Sagittarius. We can clearly see the on going need for partners to feel acknowledged because of their public performance? Some may experience the need for public validation as this is, in their world, an absolute necessity. Those who do feel acknowledged and appreciated for their public offerings, they may not be the majority of us however we can very likely be affected by one who is. Is there a de-escalation of public trust? If so how is it connected? It's as if the assumed hierarchy of our cultural system infrastructure and the names who manage and run it, these important people, that it's all free falling, rapidly falling down down down. This is ultimately clearing the mental strata, it will take some time for all their broken idea hash to completely blow away, yet as it does we will begin to experience an expansion of our own mental landscape. For now defunct importance needs to be fleshed out and drained. Individual's will then test out certain ideas beliefs, and paradigms, as they decide their own personal fit. Yet let it be known there are many options, do choose patiently, there is much magic coming alive, there is great joy available, choose lovingly. Chiron in Aries and Mars, Aries ruling planet, transits Leo, along with Venus. Actions are being taken which epitomize self confidence? If this is occurring we may be experiencing the presence of one's multi-dimensional self? Chiron acts as an ambassador to the higher realm and we can see Uranus in Taurus connecting us organically with this multi-dimensional vastness.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Cancer the focus will be on nurturing, inspired creative expression, and domestic related concerns. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of experiencing one's own emotional sensitivity and the nurturing and creative impulse which goes along with heightened sensitivity. Accepting emotional experiences as a valid source of truth, a deep rich self awareness becomes available. An evolution of self awareness occurs as influences and beliefs are known as choices and are thus examined from the perspective as to how feelings are handed over to logic. Those born under the Sun sign Cancer have a natural propensity to emotional sensitivity and deep felt sharing. They naturally resonate with the feelings which underline the self esteem of others. Not to exclude others as we all have Cancerian energy somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would experience an amplified emotional sensitivity. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the nature of their sensitivity and how this sensitivity can lead to insightful truth. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I connect with emotional sensitivity and insight by...

Gemini: trusting my physical senses as they always gives me immediate truth.

Taurus: noticing and valuing how I feel when I communicate with others.

Aries: realizing that my feelings are showing me who I believe I am.

Pisces: allowing myself to expressive my creative impulses.

Aquarius: being responsible for how I feel and allowing this sense of responsibility to ensure perfect health.

Capricorn: valuing my partnerships and allowing them to lead me to my own nurturing impulse.

Sagittarius: accepting and valuing the rebirth of self awareness which comes from my harmonious partnership experiences.

Scorpio: allowing myself to travel into new areas and by taking on fresh new experiences.

Libra: feeling my value to the public through my work and career.

Virgo: feeling the family like relationship I have with all others.

Leo: feeling the nurturing impulse of Earth and acknowledging natural organic awareness.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

01 Thursday July 9th 9:18 PM 2021 EST - new Moon in Cancer

A delightful imagination will serve and entertain as the wonders of life show off their rich juicy presence. Via vulnerability, sensitivity, and being included in the the most wonderful social club of all time, Earth's ongoing orgasmic symbiosis, with these attributes we can find the channel, the frequency, the song, and jam along. As organic creatures we are included in many things which are occurring right now. Embracing sensitivity we can navigate and enjoy this most auspicious exalted ride. When parking paradigms we need to stay tuned to the dynamic harmonics and quality of harmony and cooperation. When called we move into accepting and allow oneself to be briefed as to how things are being integrated. This is after all a great time of both integration and purging, and as such we want to be practicing congruency. So when parking and negotiating paradigms we need to tune into the higher common denominator. It can be mathematical in perception and concept yet the real integration happens with our imagination, our sensitivity, and our vulnerability. In a sense our child like nature may return as we recover our own innocence/vulnerability and begin to experience a whole new life via enriched sensuality.

Relationships and especially personal partnerships where each others attention may be important to one another, these dynamics will flesh out lots of stuff related to public importance and public reputation. There is an interesting dynamic involving fantasy and the analytical quality of a fantasies relevance. Some sacred connection with one's organic integrity may call out a fantasy. Much can be revealed in regards to health verses fantasy however one must embrace their sacred connection with the Earth and they must also embrace their connection with Creator's infinite perfection and compassion. The place where organic analytics and celestial compassion meet will feel familiar to the awakening celestial pagan.

02 Saturday July 10th - Moon enters Leo 8:22 PM

Foundational self acceptance rises as a significant connection with one's creative expressive fun loving child like self is experienced. This strength of self confidence can be felt as a physical power. In our body in our frame and in our self awareness we can physically feel how self acceptance, of an impeccable nature, leads to an undeniable feeling of physical strength. Not always is such an opportunity to tune into this so available so take it in. Mars will transit Leo until July 30th. Venus also transits Leo and their conjunction will be lite by a Moon transit on Monday. Starting around 7AM Monday morning and in through the afternoon illumined by the Moon The Mars Venus conjunction in Leo will broadcast self significance as it is bottle necked on the Moon, if such is the case. Individuals who have a love hate relationship with them selves can be triggered in away such that they can see their own dichotomy, again there are many specific cases. The Sun also plays in here as there is a semi-sextile indicating a possible need to integrate some self significance in relation to one's creative playfulness. Some may be asked to integrate their adventurous trusting self with their practical self, again how it plays out is specific to the individual. Either way we can all benefit from sensitivity directed toward self significance. When we realize we are divine spark beings and what that means we can do, we simple become significance. Any reflection upon this is a fantasy game we perhaps just found ourselves playing in. The quality of one's self significance can affect the quality of one's steadiness which can affect the quality of one's decisions? So be yourself, be safe.

03 Tuesday July 13th - Moon enters Virgo 4:32 AM

With an intact sense of self respect and an enthusiasm and willingness to take on and accept one's challenges, even the one's one would prefer to just delete, the need to clearly separate fantasy from practicality is supported. One's willingness to look at their feelings with an objective type witnessing will assist as the Moon transits Virgo. We may be concerned about our health for example and as such be less available to be involved in some less important thing. Relationships where sharing energy involves injury and fixing can become a matter to discern in terms of why it is occurring. As the Moon transits Virgo we may be reminded of our connection with the Earth and the importance of our own organic integrity. An opportunity to feel the sacred connection with the Earth through the beauty and magic of sensual richness can be felt as a sacred thing. As Taurus is transited by Uranus and Capricorn by Pluto we can feel a physical revolution going on. And now Vesta in Virgo, so juicy and sacred is we. The Earth of course is not just physical, and neither are we, and it is these other higher octaves of self which are stirring memories and collapsing time. The local rules made by man are being shown for the quality of integrity and extension they have, the harmonics of Universal Harmony are present and it is for us to flow with and accept the congruency of Creator's presence. An ability to let go and feel the harmony of existence can expedite further awareness. The individual however must first accept what they have created, everything. Once an individual has balanced their own personal energy and karma they are ready for big league.

04 Thursday July 15th - Moon enters Libra 10:33 AM

The shared energy of partnership experiences becomes enriched with increased mutual admiration. Partners who respect one another will feel good about their relationship and may experience an increase in physical energy. The quality of one's self respect may be tested by acknowledgement within a partnership. Reputation concerns and partnership acknowledgement in relation to public image is an ongoing theme for the entire moon cycle begun on July 9th, and so may be a trigger here as the Moon transits Libra. Partnerships can get fired up easily. The courage to seek new advanced understanding of local concerns may trigger again a need to understand one's quality of self respect. In this case the self respect is directed toward the courage to move forward with understanding which in the past would have seemed perhaps too far out there to consider as a practical truth. Our partnerships may at times feel like galactic fantasies, or we may experience things together which cause us both to admit and accept in a way which would have been less likely to do as a single individual.

05 Saturday July 17th - Moon enters Scorpio 2:39 PM

A new type of sensuality is awakening, and gets a boost as the Moon transits Scorpio. The sensual self can be triggered via partnership. With Uranus transiting Taurus we can see how many may be experiencing an awakening of sensuality in some way. Some partnerships will need public view. A need or yearning to share one's comfort and security can bring ideas together as well. Yet in some way their relationship may need to be public. Also there is a sacred connection with the Earth through one's sensuality which can be felt now. Parents may be challenged to maintain control, in some cases it seems to simply come down to money? There is however a heart felt intention to keep one's family safe secure and in comfort. Much wisdom may be coming through the dream state, especially if one's dreaming self is playful and rich with ideas. Playfulness and imagination can remind an individual of their own innocence. Much can be accomplished by the individual who has allowed these innocent natural attributes to be developed into their destined exalted state. The seriousness of playfulness and serious fun may be felt as the power of Scorpio unlocks ancient memories where sensuality connected us with life.

06 Monday July 19th - Moon enters Sagittarius 5:09 PM

The need to feel noticed respected or simple acknowledged in some way in a partnership can motivate and affect one's sense of self responsibility. An individual always wants to be clear as to what is their concern and what is not. Our connection to our public reputation or public image can be fleshed out and shown to us, especially if it involves partnership. An ability to accept one's own idea of self significance and be able to feel this harmoniously be integrated with others will feel comforting and adventurous. Our creative expression may be impulsive yet our sense of self respect has more likely been formulated. We are now seeing and experiencing how our foundational beliefs, in this regard to social harmony, affects the natural flow of our impulsive self. Our inspirational actions work best when they are in harmony with our sense of self respect. Our public image is the by-product of our more localized ego focused concerns and integrity. When we are personally responsible it has an harmonic connection and harmony with other extensions and versions of our selves. We experience the quality of ourselves as a complete being when we accept what occurs to our body our personal inspiration, our partnership adventures and our social community harmony. It is these four which make up our truth in terms of our harmony. Our personal harmony, will show up in all four of these, like a musical ensemble all playing the same some song, our personal song of self acceptance and self love.

07 Wednesday July 21st - Moon enters Capricorn 6:37 PM

Venus ingress Virgo Wednesday July 21st 8:38 PM

Sun ingress Leo Thursday July 22nd 10:28 AM

Our creative ideas, the ones we decided to be serious about, they are calling now for focused practicality. What do our inspired ideas need to get to the next level? Perhaps it is how others have become involved, or perhaps others are needed. We may feel the need to be parental, to step up and protect our project, our baby! Are we in place and on time? Ideally an individual will expedite practical issues by intending to hold a shared vision with those they work with. To the degree this vision can be shared, hopefully 100%, is where individual's can trust their mutual interest and remain congruent in their individual spontaneous decisions. Even though individual's may act and make individual decisions because of the shared vision these so called separate action are essentially of the same agenda. This can be a creative time where ideas which involve community harmony can sync up with family or individual security needs. Win win scenarios are supported by spirit and many individuals may well join in with such a rally of shared vision and enthusiasm. What communities are challenged to accept is the wanning and deconstruction of what had been their community infrastructure. The new visions will support not only a recovery, they will also support a new way of sharing and creating mutual comfort and security within a community.

08 Friday July 23rd - Moon enters Aquarius 8:14 PM

Full Moon in Aquarius Friday July 23rd 10:38 PM

Many will be sticking up for themselves right now so they will be looking for respect if social cooperation is asked of them. "The rules? Who's the boss?" Social authority is broken just below the knees right now, and we see much public wobbling as the shins of community continue to feel the pain of infrastructure collapse. The Moon will flash by a retrograde Saturn in Aquarius and so shall we get a glimpse of some very desperate elites, those 1%er's getting their comeuppance. But what the hey, we got our own concerns. Practicality in terms of who we are as social creatures is about to be completely reborn. Right now the stage is being set, this staggering process currently consists of a lot of purging, this is what we have been seeing, massive authority purging. The new social community set to come in our lives is a more Earthly and pagan vibration. Technology is good however in the near future technology will be used to advance us and evolve with us as opposed to being used to enslave us. Not only can we become more Earthly and pagan it can be integrated in a celestial spiritual way. Self responsibility itself will be reborn. From now forward it may be a plan of joy and harmony for an individual to choose to acknowledge and include the Earth and her magic in their lives. Our sensual self is naturally and organically leading us back to the harmonious magical symbiosis of all Mother's Earth's creatures.

09 Sunday July 25th - Moon enters Pisces 11:31 PM

Mercury ingress Leo Tuesday July 27th 9:13 PM

Many individual's are discovering their spiritual connections. It's as if we remember who we are. Many others have known much for some time while others are just now getting some big time realizations about themselves and what they can potentially do. And also they will realize their is a need to be responsible for what one gives energy to. Irresponsibility simply follows you around until it is dealt with. So as humans we have always had this manifesting realities attribute, even if we did not know about it. Either way we are called to be responsible. The layers of manifested denial individuals have created for themselves will very and they will all need to be dealt with from this self responsible stance. As the Moon transits Pisces we can discover the emotional pools of energy which correlate with mass beliefs and we can see/feel our own attachment and kinship to this. When we can feel and own this, when we can examine our self intention which substantiated this into immediate permanence, then perhaps we can find the seeding idea in our own emotion trail, and tweak it if we like to. We can examine much about ourselves when the Moon transits Pisces as the boundaries and rules are some what temporarily lifted and we are out roaming around, if we choose. Ideally the individual will witness their own self and objectively comprehend what is going on in their specific world. Once it's known it is easily corrected by changing one's idea about something. In the mean time many cultural beliefs will break through, religious ideas, all matters of dogma, all stirred up so we can all get an objective look at what we need to own and feel.

10 Wednesday July 28th - Moon enters Aries 5:59 AM

Jupiter retrograde ingress Aquarius Wednesday July 28th 8:44 AM

Mars ingress Virgo Thursday July 29th 4:34 PM

An ability to be naturally humble in one's approach will facilitate a creative noble effort. Our courage is being shown to us as we are able to stick up for ourselves's, this is the big motivation for the sovereign individual as indicated by Mars transiting Leo. Chiron transiting Aries again indicates that this is a time of awakening the multi-dimensional warrior within. The courage to understand and remember who we are, as beings not so tied and enslaved by third density manifestations, we can feel Chiron giving us the fire and action to move when we need to move. Five D action power comes alive for the courageous self respecting individual. As Leo indicates impeccable sovereignty and self responsibility this action is tied into the pride one has for them self, if there is action there is genuine self value. Of course the soundness and effectiveness of the action is another matter, however when one embraces and integrates congruency as a daily matter then they can take the step, and yes now the bridge will be there.

11 Friday July 30th - Moon enters Taurus 4:09 PM

As individual's our ability to see the bigger picture, of whatever drama may be unfolding for us, is dependant on our ability to trust and witness vulnerability. Once a degree of congruency has been established within the individual an extended aura of sensitivity or dynamic conscious zone is set up, any harmonic changes are immediately felt. We can connect to her mother Earth via the same sensitivity, and doing so discover much magic. As the Moon transits Taurus a wonderful opportunity to do just that, feel the yum yum as decreed by each individual organic creature, avails. Where is their sensual attention directed? As these parallels and merging's activate our own ancient memory our future memory, or potential, is pulling us there, and like perfect balance our NOW is cosy in the middle. We can feel the whole thing. Higher octaves of organic sensitivity are coming on line as well. Everybody will experience it in their own way. As an individual substantiates an example world version they manifest it and for their ego it becomes their real. However the possibilities are substantial, so substantial that it's as if there is every nature of creature which exists here now among us scooping up human souls on the cheap, just like the mad fishing off the banks of Newfoundland until all the fish were gone. Yet as we experience the Cancerian new Moon cycle, as it forays toward the coming Leo Moon cycle, we can feel how vulnerability and imagination are the gifts child like memory restores in us. And so as we align to the power of our pure connection with existence we can more easily let it go. Let it all go, and just be love, self love is the only lesson. Okay NOW lets play ball!

12 Monday August 2nd - Moon enters Gemini 4:47 AM

Tension regarding social position may peak? We can feel our personal and our social or community significance merge, or show that they in ways seem quite similar things. Our ability to be good with ourselves is echoed and reflected in what we naturally extend to others we interact with in a social or community way. As we alter and advance our own self acceptance our social acceptance will be in step. If this is not the case the individual is perhaps mistaking denial as acceptance. We can feel the quality of each. What does it feel like when you meet a really good friend for the first time, the potential feels good. When we realize something about our selves which we like it's probable because the potential feels good. Ideally the individual will come to a natural awareness of how needing others to validate social significance indicates a lack of self awareness. This is a good time for communicating. If there is something which needs to be said then it is a good time to be clear and focused and go for it, say your thing. The massive amount of failed ideas and now defunct leadership agendas takes time to be completely fleshed out and removed. The quality of the mental air space opens up and the connection between so many things now clear. Many will experience and continue advancing their mind space as their light of awareness has more and more filters removed. When we can accept and be responsible for our awesome creative power more and more of who we are and what we affect will be shown and integrated. We are constantly evolving.

13 Wednesday August 4th - Moon enters Cancer 5:18 PM

As the Moon returns to Cancer and we near the end of this Moon cycle we can take stock of our child like nature and realize it is not child like at all, as we get to know ourselves we wake up to the power of innocence and imagination. The innocence of a child is a reminder to us, as we were all once there, being naturally wondrous and naturally curious and naturally imaginative. Our ability to discover is closely connected to our attachment to feeling joy in every moment. Our natural tendency to frolic and entertain our selves via living is a natural and healthy way. It is the way of Cancerian energy and it is our connection with the spiritual realms. The child like nature of who we are is called child like because we perhaps lack the awareness and maturity to comprehend the need to nurture the Earth to feel the need and connection with other organic creatures in this way only when really young? If our children are attacked then it is a spiritual attack. If our children are loved then it is spiritual love. We need to decide who is in charge of our self definition. We can commit to valuing our own child like nature and innocence. This Moon cycle may have triggered memories of being more child like and it may have also trigger memories of spirit and working with spirit. Teaming up with spirit and working with spirit is facilitated via our innocent vulnerability and sensitivity, all things Cancerian.

14 Thursday August 7th - Moon enters Leo 3:33 AM

Relationships partnerships and public image, these things may, for some, have to be untangled. The real rescue here however is one's mind. If one is believing contradictory information their mind can be sustained in a chaos as an impossible solution is regardlessly sought. It is important for an individual to believe in themselves. However this can be difficult if the individual is unaware that their thoughts create. Once this is know a shift in what one must be responsible for occurs, immediately they let go of expecting accolades and approval from others. When it occurs, public recognition and community admiration, we remember this celebration is the buy-product of integrity. Besides if someone celebrates or recognizes another it is really themselves they see in another they are celebrating. If it is inspiring to others then so be it. We have all we need when we know thought creates, yes there is a period of cleaning up years of a karmic mess which one may have been unknowingly leaving all around in their lives. As the Moon transits Leo and we merge with Leo codes and self respect type triggers perhaps we can do it, really fall in love with ourselves and become impeccable responsible for ourselves. As we let go of the need for external validation we get special activation, we have much more light available to us, our mind is refreshed.

Next new Moon in Leo Sunday August 8th 9:51 AM EST

08 Monday April 26th - Moon enters Scorpio 12:19 PMPluto retrograde Tuesday April 27th 4:04 PMFull Moon in Scorpio Friday April 26th 11:33 PM*

Many things, wonderful things have happen to the organic creatures which make the symbiotic orgasmic dance we know and enjoy. As Earth creatures ourselves we can feel this joy through our sensuality and in our will and heart. Yet like the elephant in the room we know there has been a wicked abuse of organic creatures as well. We as humans may have been exposed to this more closely than anyone would want. Here now as the Moon transits Scorpio, and hosted by the current Aries Moon cycle, we can return to the moments that we were personally violated. Of course this is not going to apply to everyone, or if it does apply to everyone it would be in differing degrees. The history some may be connecting to and clearing may be a perverted greed which was born of ignorance, and an inability to protect the innocent by those who knew better. Yet we don't need to simple stir up waters under that old bridge. Unless of course we are having every intention of owning it and clearing it. This takes courage. The Aries energy will issue courage, and the acknowledgement of the Earth will issue the healing vision, and so in many cases the healing comes down to the individual who can admit that they are feeling the pain of

- 03 Through playfulness I am reminded of my own innocence.
- 04 I am constantly evolving.
- 05 Trusting my vulnerability expedites my journey toward evolved self awareness.
- 06 I listen well.
- 07 Much wisdom comes to me through the dream state.
- 08 I can feel a new type of sensuality awakening.
- 09 Together my partner and I agree on things either of us saw coming.
- 10 I choose to be myself, I choose to be safe.
- 11 My self confidence is a physical power.
- 12 My partner and I are naturally holding the vision for a harmonious community.
- 13 As a plan of joy and harmony I choose to acknowledge and include the Earth and her magic in my lives.
- 14 As I witness my own self I am able to objectively comprehend what is going on in my specific world.
- 15 I allow myself to birth that which is most needed by Earth and Spirit at this sacred time.
- 16 I am open to vast clarity and the richness of infinite information.
- 17 I have a mind however I am not my mind.
- 18 Self love refreshes my mind.
- 19 Caring for community feels natural for me.
- 20 My child like nature connects me to special insight and understanding.
- 21 I feel connected to life in a gentle loving way as if I am eternally playful.
