Overview

New Moon in Scorpio

Thursday November 1st 8:48 AM EST

"My partnership is sacred to me."

With the test flights now over the real journey begins, humanity is headed into a journey of clearing out elitism and restoring self responsibility as a significant and important individual characteristic. Pluto's Aquarius ingress will, for it's final time, be on November 19th 2024 and will not merge from Aquarius until 2043. There has been brief exposures to this energy in 2023 for about two months and in 2024 for about five months. With Pluto transiting Aquarius for almost two decades we will see some adjusting and rebuilding of our social world. Pluto opposite Leo will challenge individual self significance to let go of external validation. And The Aquarius transit will flesh out elitism which interferes with the individual establishment of personal significance. There are two other significant indicators which suggest we will be moving into a much different world than we have been living in. The next big life changing ingress will Neptune's Aries ingress and the third is Uranus's Gemini ingress. Neptune's Aries ingress suggest an independent look at spiritual values and feel the need to be sovereign in order to connect with the spirit worlds, this can terminate many collective type religious groups and communities. If religious or spiritual groups are able to define themselves as sacred individual first they will work well the divine feminine aspect of themselves. Uranus's Gemini ingress will open peoples minds to ideas and communications which are coming from unusual and most likely currently unknown sources and places. Neptune will being to make the Aries ingress in May of 2025 followed by Uranus's Gemini ingress which will begin in July of 2025. The combination of these three significant ingresses will most likely remake our individual and shared worlds

The new Moon in Scorpio can bring one's focus to shared resources and shared values. The things which bring us security and comfort typically involve partnerships, it is these partnerships which will most likely be involved in some sort of exchanges or balancing where cost and return are seriously considered. There are things from an individual's past or current partnership experiences which can return if something had been left incomplete in some way. The new Moon phase features a grand trine in water signs, vulnerability and sensitivity may seem to be on the rise. Emotional words or communications may be triggered. A spiritual or religious meaning may be sought, where past beliefs need to be made sense of. A need to understand a spiritual perspective can be an important factor and can affect one's decisions. Challenges exist between those who are guardians to family verses the changing social infrastructures which governs our community infrastructure and systems. With family and domestic situations involved, a need to make sense of current community changes is necessary. In partnership an urge to be noticed and appreciated can actually act as a balancing or harmonizing factor which can prevent some challenging situation from getting too out of hand. Governing infrastructures for communities can be eroded and this now potentially affects domestic harmony, it is here where a vision of harmony and peace can come in and soften an otherwise tight or difficult situation. A keen look at one's public effectiveness in terms of one's work may be an enjoyable pursuit, the sense that opportunities lurk can be motivating, a wonderful wisdom applied to one's purpose. Saturn continues to transit Pisces and we continue to see authorities and bosses needing to understand their role from an empathic perspective. Beginning the new Moon in retrograde we may notice that since July authorities of all sorts have been retreating into a retrospective sort of strategy where they may be questioning their core beliefs as understood from their authority type role. Individuals who typically hold others to the assumed rules are also in this reflective mode. When Saturn goes direct on November 15 we may see a return of their voice and intentions, yet the need to be empathic with those they are involved with will still hold. Jupiter also begins this Moon cycle in retrograde motion. Transiting Gemini since late May an increase in public communications which began then has been set into a review mode as well with Jupiter's retrograde motion which began October 8th. Delays in legal matters can correlate as well as delays in completing a communication. Jupiter will remain retrograde until February 4th 2024 indicating a period where one's ideas are needing to be reconsidered. Words from the past may return before this date, things said publicly or even secretly can still have a life until then. Jupiter in Gemini can indicate a speak before you think excitement, however the ambitious individual who hears unnecessary ideas and words may bring forward well consider actions which challenge the truly unnecessary or irrelevant ideas. Powerful ideas can also be communicated which are connected to the eroding of social infrastructures.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Scorpio the focus will be on emotional depths we reach by embracing shared experience. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of valuing and acknowledging the truth of sensuality and the rich life which unfolds into our immediate experience through sensuality. Such experience brings forward powerful energy which births new life and transforms our world in many ways. An evolution of self awareness occurs as this area of transformation and power is noticed and valued. Those born under the Sun sign Scorpio have a natural propensity to sensuality and deep rich involvement in life. They can surprise others at times with their talent, they become an expert in those areas which inspire them. Not to exclude others as we all have Scorpio somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would experience deep insight in a natural way. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases we will see personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic inclination toward sensual experience of each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I feel deeply connected to life when I ...

Libra: value how I have a natural propensity to know what is going on around me.

Virgo: trust that I connect naturally with the deep meaning of whatever is being communicated.

Leo: look deeply into my own self definition.

Cancer: allow my inspiration and sensuality to move into playful dynamics.

Gemini: am being responsible for what my sensuality brings to my attention.

Taurus: accept the deep feelings I have when I allow my self to experience partnership.

Aries: accept what I have started and allow the richness of the outcomes to be supported by my initial impulses.

Pisces: allow myself to experience new things and places.

Aquarius: embrace the value of my commitment to my career.

Capricorn: trust and value how my feelings always give me a deep insight concerning my social world.

Sagittarius: feel Mother Earth's presence in my body.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

January 20th	July 22nd
March 3rd & 4th	September 5th
March 17th	September 20th

May 15th, 16th	November 16th, 17th & 18th

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

01 New Moon in Scorpio Friday November 1st 8:48 AM EST 2024*Mercury ingress Sagittarius Saturday November 2nd 3:19 PM*

As the new Moon in Scorpio begins our priorities may change? Depending on one's natural depth of resonance with Scorpio a wise version of one's self character may rise. This wisdom being the by-product of a specific type of agenda. Typical with Scorpio is the impetus to share resources productively and fairly. Scorpio is all about sharing comfort, sharing security, sharing foundation, it is about sharing the Earth. If this is the impetus for the individual then wisdom will likely be theirs. An ability to find or manifest the correct team players can work well in terms of being mutually beneficial, including increasing security. Intense ideas can lead to revolutionary reactions, a potential that a dam may break or an intense chain reaction can follow an assertively expressed idea. Those who have been giving increased priority to their warrior self in the last year or so may begin to combine this boldness with an intense vision or desire of what they want. Mutually beneficial ideas and actions will bode best. Difficult interactions can be soothed by other individuals who are simply seeking friendly experiences and nice interactions, their friendly influence can have a balancing affect for those who may be feeling lost desperate or aggressive. With the test flights now over the real journey begins, humanity is headed into a journey of clearing out elitism and restoring self responsibility as a significant and important individual characteristic. Seeking external validation based on the belief system of a fleeting authority can interrupt one's otherwise well intended plan. It's as if the false idols, if they do exist for an individual, will not pass through the two decade timeframe beginning this Moon cycle. Self acceptance self responsibility and self love however will align one's journey with the joys they are destined to evolve and share.

02 Sunday November 3rd - Moon enters Sagittarius 12:21 AM*Mars ingress Leo November 3rd Sunday 11:11 PM*

Inventive ideas shared by a team can lead to mutually beneficial security for all involved, an increase in resources results. Some may have a challenge to prioritize actions over too much talk. Simply pay attention to the center of gravity of the team, the shared vision, and the wisdom to solve and remove blocks can flow, useful fair solutions can appear. When control in partnerships can be shared fairly the potential for big dividends increases. Some may experience dynamics involving justice or fairness. Ideas are needing to be sifted through, a review of past ideas may call for patience as those who are ready for action are being expected to keep it in neutral for a little longer. If this situation carries on it will be challenged by the following Moon cycle in Sagittarius beginning December 1st. For now the focus shared security can lead to beneficial results. A special ear for the truth can reveal much to the astute individual, an ability to see the higher perspective without judgment can reveal more connections leading to more choices. An individual who is tricked into feeling powerless however will be overwhelmed by ideas and notions that have little or no congruency, where no grand common ground exists. We can feel the expansive quality of our own wisdom when we give ourselves permission to be our own authority and accept the responsibility of our connection to divine purpose and creation. Dream skills can come in handy now and throughout this cycle. By simply making suggestions before one sleeps one can activate many portions of their talents and potentials, simple intend clarity and insight be yours.

03 Tuesday November 5th - Moon enters Capricorn 10:18 AM

It may feel necessary and correct to be vigilant with communications, to be clear about what is said so that no confusion can exist. A dynamic for some may be playing out, a need to make sense of some public or governing force must be harmonized with a domestic challenge. For some individuals things can become confusing as the need to be focused is driven by a need to be boundless. In order to direct or share relevant and important ideas with others one can feel required to let go of pre assumptions. One must be completely objective and non-judgmental, perhaps to a greater degree than ever before, if an important idea is meant to be shared with others. Avoid loose reckless talk, keep it clear and focused. Notice how one is sharing one's idea with another, can you feel the harmonious energy which correlates with your interactions? Our infrastructures which have allowed us to function as a community, both locally and globally and all in between, have been rocked, some toppled, some still rocking, and yet some are getting more expansive and becoming stronger. This Moon cycle may flesh out some significant things for the individual as a new degree of realism may be given to them as a gift from the Earth, we are in this together in so many ways. What was once know as "wise woman ways" for example is given support. When the vibrational spectrum of one's go to foundational spectrum acknowledges and spans both the Earth's sustained organic sensual dynamic and the correlating celestial dance of the heavens an expansiveness is allowed to occur. If we are one of those who needs to learn to get out of our own way then this Capricorn ingress may deliver just the right challenges.

04 Thursday November 7th - Moon enters Aquarius 5:59 PM

Something big time is playing out with everyone, that's the way it can feel. A massive resistance to a social order will be passionate and inspired, and somewhat unpredictable. A call for freedom awakens many who thought they were already awake. We are heading into a social cleansing. Elitism will be challenged to prove it's worth to exist. Being in harmony with the will of those who share the belief that we need to be self responsible can become an expanding common denominator. A group who shares an awareness that no one will save them, again that we have agreed to be self responsible, can through mutual resonance become collectively steady and strong, where all included benefit from such security. Once we are aware of our divinity we soon remember, we don't need to be saved. Being self responsible also includes respecting and honoring the Earth and skies. As we allow ourselves to merge with these worlds, as above so below, we may find the Heaven and Earth in ourselves. Our self definition may be wanting to bust free from previous self definitions, one's which were once okay, but now it can feel out of sync. We may or may not be redefining ourselves however we are quite likely noticing that we have moved away from certain self characteristics. Perhaps it is our home, we may feel something in our domestic dynamic needs to be changed? Either way a breaking free from irrelevant ideals continues. Even if there are those who still cling to the past, the idea that the old control systems will return or be sustained will prove to be a fleeting concern.

05 Saturday November 9th - Moon enters Pisces 11:01 PM

Venus ingress Capricorn Monday November 11th 1:27 PM

As we are experiencing an evolving wisdom the reality forming around us is requiring us to posses such a skill. Our ability to see through our own nonsense has hopefully increased and will continue to do so during this Scorpio Moon cycle. What can make Scorpio energy and also this Scorpio Moon cycle very interesting is the depth of awareness an individual can experience if they allow themselves to accept and merge with that which they manifest. Can awareness supersede intelligence, a feeling about things always accompanies ones thoughts about it. Our awareness is like having the key to the vault where our intelligence is typically focused within a particular closed system. When the individual is congruent with Scorpio their awareness will lead their intelligence as a natural order of who they are. The pain of separation is a glaring truth in the face of Scorpio. Scorpio is about sharing, sharing the things which allows us to survive and have comfort doing so. Sensual sharing is also resonate in Scorpio energy. Religious and spiritual understandings and beliefs can be fleshed out or made obvious. The individual may tune into the difficulty some regulators or authorities are experiencing. There seems too much emotional current to get a solid footing, boundaries can become confusing. The mixing up of many different feelings, especially regarding social and public infrastructure, can be occurring. What was once so very important may have receded, it actually may be forgotten. However when one is able to redefine themselves, to remember themselves, and if this self identity is affiliated with being responsible for the space one holds and gives energy to a grand dance or song begins to form. As an individual's evolving awareness extends and expands they can experience an increase in energy. Harmony as a specific resonance and personal choice, can become multiplied when an individual's alignment is tuned with first cause, and thus acting like a personal battery.

06 Tuesday November 12th - Moon enters Aries 1:27 AM

Our independent acts will likely be beneficial to our partnership. An integration, a connection, with an all knowing portion of ourself can be hosted or facilitated through our confidence and boldness. A shared idea can become enhanced, given power, through a depth of understanding which inspires self responsible actions. Ideas which seem to be stuck are dug up and moved into anyway as some may say "hey what is this about", and as such look into notions and ideas which may actually be attempting to retreat? As each individual continues to awaken on their own, their experience will correlate with others. There will be common themes, new things individuals discover on their own yet others have also discovered these things. And there will be unique things to each individual, even these may reveal a common thread with others? What do we now realize that others also realize and what do we believe to be real? There is a unique and special alignment during this Aries Moon ingress. Our boldness may be urged to spring into being. Hopefully the individual is ready. Loyalty to our own journey is a good thing as it suggest we are intent on being self responsible. Shared interests can be supported by independent actions. When we are clear about our specific responsibilities and attend to them it can affect others in a positive way, perhaps they too can feel and see a path forward. It is their freewill to choose to step into action. Our acts of self responsibility can inspire others, as a by-product of self responsibility and self love, others may be lead to courageous actions as well.

07 Thursday November 14th - Moon enters Taurus 2:00 AM

Saturn direct in Pisces Friday November 15th 9:21 AM

Full Moon November 15th Thursday 4:30 PM EST

Things can become more substantial or real as practical grounding is called for. In partership an individual may be interested in their partners wealth, or in their shared wealth. United over fairness and truth can now evolve to shared security, the details necessary to secure this are more likely focused on. A way to substantiate one's union with a special partner may be acted on, an acknowledgement or celebration of their union expressed. Self confidence can be a specific determiner as to whether or not one takes action. The practicalities of one's personal security situation may play out in terms of what can be shared with another and what must be serviced solely by one's self. A review of one' options in recent weeks may conclude as one begin's to progress forward with their direction. The religious aspect of one's choices may have been a recent hold up however now this seems to be letting go and a movement forward can begin. Some may feel their marriage with the Earth as she is the epitome of sharing her abundance as she host all us species. We can feel the comfort of that partnership.

08 Saturday November 16th - Moon enters Gemini 2:10 AM

Sudden changes can seem to come out of nowhere. A form of security may be busted free, a natural resource or some special gift from the Earth which brings comfort is acknowledged causing a sudden shift in consciousness. A breakthrough of sorts can be shocking to some individual's. One of the big heads up for this Moon cycle would be concerning the amount of ideas currently in play which can be discombobulating. It is cautioned that one not become overwhelmed by this flood of ideas, especially if they are obviously irrelevant to one's Scorpio new Moon intentions. As the Moon transits Gemini we may even have ideas from the past nudged into our immediate space, and this can be positive if one were to do some astral type house cleaning. However it can challenge an individual to stay the course. Taking note of anything which gets one's attention may suffice as these things will surely reemerge during the Sagittarius Moon cycle beginning December 1st. For now we can, for a day or two, be more sensitive to what others say or ideas in general. We may have ideas or thoughts from past failed partnerships return now as well, and again we must own this yet there can truly be too much right now. In the meantime there can be important shared ideas which are currently relevant. These are things which describe our current dynamics and so have a further or deeper interest than other unrelated ones. We want to make sure that the idea of something doesn't replace the real thing. The depth of things can be felt if this is one's choice. And so it is good to choose wisely right now.

09 Monday November 18th - Moon enters Cancer 3:51 AM

Pluto ingress Aquarius Thursday November 19th 3:30 PM

The higher meaning of one's journey may feel closer as the Moon transits Cancer. With an added sensitivity directed toward truth or religious beliefs, philosophic beliefs, an added awareness of details may reveal valuable personal insights. Self confidence can for some feel amplified, especially if one feels they must take action independently. Past unresolved partnership challenges may parallel current experiences and continue to challenge the individual to reconsider a past feeling or decision. The brutal control over public boundaries over the past decade will finally being to recede, their, the controllers, denial has retuned to them. A new challenge for individuals will take it's place and this is dealing with an individual's ability to remain sovereign while being self responsible. In the meantime we may enjoy an infrastructure rebuild. There is a relationship here between the new authorities and the feeling of a complete belief reset. It's as if an authority purification is taking place. Again it's as if all corrupt or misplaced self serving authorities have been culled, and now humanity must begin again. Where is the truth? Our ability to feel and to trust this feeling will assist us to explore our self identity by diving into our vulnerabilities, here lies our truth.

10 Wednesday November 20th - Moon enters Leo 8:52 AM

Sun ingress Sagittarius Thursday November 21st 2:58 PM

Pride and ambition will be given their roles as some individuals will be called to stay in harmony with the public while at the same time they may be called to assist. Many will be inspirations to others, who will in turn inspire others. For some public image may seem more important than usual. Some may experience public attention in a positive way as a result of finally having and expressing the courage and boldness to act independently. Taking the time to move into stillness may bring some events into broader understanding. Visualization can be of benefit as the day may seem to follow more evenly and with congruency as opposed to being less prepared to meet challenges where one might be knocked off one's intended schedule. Also a pre visual of one's upcoming events can flesh out issues one may have missed. If we are to address the public we may feel ourselves being supported by others, and that we are on time and that we indeed to bring value to those who witness our presentation. How security is shared between individuals is being tuned up or reset. Sudden changes in an individual's typical way of understanding and dealing with resources may quickly change, some unexpected reality may change everything in regards to sharing property or wealth. Confident individuals will appear to be getting stronger and some perhaps become more aggressive. If their intentions are good then this can be beneficial. If there is lots of talking there will be those who are discerning and are calling for truth and value though shared ideas and words. Public reputation concerns can for some become more dominate, at least for the next several weeks.

11 Friday November 22nd - Moon enters Virgo 6:02 PM

An objective look at one's social and/or professional worlds may be inspired. As one considers who they are socially a feeling of involving others in an inspired vision may trigger intuitive ideas. A study of what is occurring socially and publicly may happen naturally. An active mind may review or study social dynamics or social functions, questing and seeking a higher meaning. This can be triggered by concern over friends or others who require assistance. A generous impulse can move into action if called for. A potential insight may occur regarding the skills of others. One may notice how others have a special skill which would work in well with something they were already involved with. Or a new idea completely can be born from a new friendship. A heightened ability to intuit potentials for sharing values can be experienced as the Moon transits Virgo. As the Sun now transits Sagittarius we may feel a shift toward public reputation concerns. Mentally one's attention may be drawn to public or professional concerns. A study or research project is possible called for. The current tide of ideas which has been pouring over the social media worlds will web and flow, this also can be felt. There has been a holding back since October of ideas however this dam will not hold forever, expect a rush of words and ideas to return early February 2025.

12 Monday November 25th - Moon enters Libra 6:21 AM

The quality of balance and harmony we are experiencing in our relationships may feel important. How we are as a global community may also feel important. Understanding and agreeing on some basic common interests could assist relationships, whether our own personal relationships or community and global relationships. Our relationships with consciousness other than human can also feel important. A feeling that one doesn't like anger or intimidation can cause them to make certain decisions. A desire for luxury or a feeling about a hidden luxury may also affect decisions. Our impulsive self will direct our behavior at times when things may happen suddenly. In such cases in order to make different decisions spontaneously we must look at our impulsive self, we may want to change our fundamental beliefs. Our ability to discern nice experiences from uncomfortable one's can cause us to choose the nice one's of course, however if some issue or challenge is continually returning or if we are feeling something we don't like in our body, then perhaps it is time to look at the beliefs. A dynamic can exist where an individual is shifting their self awareness between being really self confident to being unsure without someone's assistance? Ideally the individual will observe their relationship energy dynamics and patterns allowing a grand perspective to form. We may discover many correlating parallels as we allow our awareness to stretch and expand the view of ourselves and our place in a shared world.

13 Wednesday November 27th - Moon enters Scorpio 12:31 AM

An intention to be fair and valuable to a partner can serve as a balancing energy for other powerful dynamics which can be occurring. A challenge between concerns for the home and one's domestic situation verses a changing order in one's community can benefit from harmony between partners. Our connection to community and local utilities may have changed in some way and this change can affect actions in the home. Shared responsibilities and the resources to maintain this security may have been affected during this Moon cycle. It may be clear now that we as partners who hold mutual concerns and interest must be careful and prudent as many things which govern our communities continues to change. We may begin to hear a new direction from government leaders, or we may choose a new direction which calls for several things to considered carefully. As we can feel the importance of some things over others we can better know where our attention would be best applied. Our sensual connection with our shared world will also include our connection and partnership with the Earth which has also been playing out during this Scorpio Moon cycle. As the organic world we share this Earth with changes it is assured our organic truth as human is also changing.

14 Saturday November 30th - Moon enters Sagittarius 6:54 AM

An urge to bring up some past plans and reinvent them can be triggered by remembering some ideas which were once shared in a partnership. A need to resolve past issues can limit new experiences. Some past conversations may need to be reactivated and perhaps brought to completion now. A healthy self confidence can recharge one's battery right now. Actions may epitomize confidence. Some may find there is an avalanche of thoughts and ideas continually occupying their head, an internal non-stop dialogue. If this is so one may consider paying attention to the correlating feelings which parallel the thoughts and seeing where they lead, intend on seeing a bigger picture.
