Overview

New Moon in Sagittarius
Sunday December 1st 1:23 AM EST

"I am looking at my own ideas concerning public roles and ambitions."

Getting straight with an array of ideas intended to comprehend today's unprecedented events and dynamics can be challenging. There is like an idea recall going on, the communication channels may get stuck. Who would we talk to then? Networks could get really jammed up this Moon cycle as past ideas and incomplete thoughts return like an idea flood. The mediator seems to be off at religious school or spiritual retreat or is not home because they went deep sea diving, the authorities are a no show. Truth justice and fairness may be the main drive for many and so it can get crazy as they move through the typical steps only to find the road is, what, gone?. And this will be exposed through communications, or the blocking of information and then the reviewing of past ideas. Hopefully the old ideas will help in resolving the blocks attributed to colliding understandings. A public show down where past words are recalled and faced will, hopefully, lead to fair outcomes and forward moving cooperation. Being serious and to the point will be welcomed and even embraced.

A flood of energy from past ideas can feel like it is interfering with one's current interests. A social situation, for example may assemble around a past shared interest, yet is it still relevant? Does it honor and validate one's self admiration? Self confidence may be mirrored back to one who is seeking credibility. This can be a tricky dynamic as on the one hand we want to be self confident and on the other we need to be clear and honest with ourselves about what we are experiencing socially or publicly. A new way of understanding our sovereignty may be occurring. Our ability to be responsible for ourselves, our actions our thoughts, is a sign of something important. Are we evolving toward a new understanding of maturity? Self responsibility can be a huge factor in allowing ones own natural evolution toward advancing awareness to proceed. Self responsibility is related to knowing our thoughts create, it means we need to be responsible for what we think. Not such a big deal when we realize we are not our mind. We move into the heart and witness our mind, from this perspective we energetically resonate with our whole self, it is the natural spaciousness of the heart. Through continued self responsibility an individual will become congruent in their energetic wholeness, a natural resonance will energize and via mutual resonance connect one to their source. It can be like turning on a tap if one was inclined.

There is something beautiful and sensual about the organic quality of life, it is inspirational and motivational. An impulse to follow one's intuition occurs. An enchanted impulse! Feels like it will lead to abundant good fortune. Motivated to work hard, as if it were a joyful opportunity, yields the relative assurance that abundance will follow. A break through, one realizes something rather fantastic can be made practical and real. Something unexpected can affect one's commitment to focused work. We may become more intuitive if we mingle with nature. Our connection with nature can tune our sensual resonance. Can we be with the wild, can we trust this?. An interesting understanding comes from an objective stance, the need for action and boldness is being balanced with the need to acknowledge a divine social presence. Those who resist the natural unfolding of social rights and freedoms of the self responsible will experience many challenges as no matter what they use to distract or delay from the inevitable they must allow this purification to unroll. Elitism absent of self responsibility will fail. Past trapped energy is being released as evolving self responsible individuals are prepared to steward it.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Sagittarius the focus will be on activities which increase public value. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of discovering and acting upon the interconnection between apparent separate dynamics which make up daily experience. Such realizations bring forward an effortless yet dynamic interchange with our world as we intend and seek those experiences which are motivational. An evolution of self awareness occurs as connections and insights become instantaneous with our experiences. Those born under the Sun sign Sagittarius have a natural propensity to dynamic public involvement. They naturally and easily become leaders through their quick dynamic actions. Not to exclude others as we all have Sagittarius somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would experience expanded insight in a natural way. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic inclination toward social and public commitment of each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I experience an expansion of insight when I ...

Scorpio: accept and trust my body to show me and lead me to what is most interesting.

Libra: connect with others and share ideas with those who are immediate to my current intention.

Virgo: pay attention to how I emotionally feel about my public value.

Leo: move on my inspiration with joy and excitement.

Cancer: organize my personal responsibilities.

Gemini: allow myself to become involved in the dynamic adventure of partnership.

Taurus: allow the richness of my partnership to attract public value.

Aries: move courageously forward into new territories of social and public interaction.

Pisces: accept the leadership role which my chosen career leads me to.

Aquarius: embrace the value of social interaction.

Capricorn: allow and accept the opinion of others.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

01 New Moon in Sagittarius Sunday December 1st 1:23 AM EST 2024

For the professionally inspired individuals a willingness to look into recent or past road blocks or differences of opinion can prove fruitful. The way forward must be cleared first so no guessing about who or what supports which ideas, all the affiliations and understandings are better out in the open. These are old ideas mostly and if that is so one needs to look at who they uniquely represent and discover something about them and perhaps ones own self. Something one can feel confident about. Such a discovery can act as an energy battery. In partnership dynamics it may feel the roles are reversed, one's over excited use of ideas called out by another who is wanting to understand how such and such can be put into actions, and now the roles may be reversed. Finding common ground and congruency within an avalanche of ideas can be important for the common ground must be known and shared before cooperative positive actions can begin. An enthusiastic eruption of self confidence may be based on old ideas, ideas which must be looked at as these ideas may have been serving as a serious block, but looked at from a different way perhaps can yield a way forward. If these ideas can be seen and felt from the experiences of others other than solely from one's own sense of intention then a balancing can occur and a less traumatic outcome can be expected. There would be less shock. If things seem to be held up in some kind of congested idea intersection then an objective and patient approach would be suggested. Soon the congestion will clear and the idea intersection will once again flow. Right now it can be an ideal time to look at one's own ideas concerning public roles and or ambitions.

02 Monday December 2nd - Moon enters Capricorn 4:10 PM

The common ground between one's self and the public they want to lead or conduct must be clearly understood and respected. A deeper look is a must for those who have a goal to conquer. This may be a concern for the ambitious professional. The unpredictable nature of one's security is understood and accepted as the current truth of one's authority is accepted from an evolving perspective. An understanding as to what are either the spiritual or religious methods or insights can seem to be more important and interesting than before. Old ideas are needing to be understood from a more dimensional perspective. What are the mechanisms or public systems needed to get from here to there? Our desires if they lead to public connections and interchanges will require us to have a clear understanding of the terrain to which we must navigate. Perhaps unexpected the ambitious individual is in need of understanding and integrating a higher order understanding, they may look to religion or spiritual enlightenment to satisfy this. The spiritual or religious affects or meaning of one's current ambition must be understood, it' as if the boss or authority is embroiled in a religious revival or something and now all the emotional and spiritual ramifications must be considered. A sudden interest in the fundamental foundation of one's ambitions feels like an attraction and as such an unexpected change is embraced. An attraction, as in a mutual resonance, with a rising organic sensual vibration and resonance of the Earth may be felt.

03 Wednesday December 4th - Moon enters Aquarius 11:22 PM

Mars retrograde Friday Leo December 6th Friday 6:34 PM

Venus ingress Aquarius Saturday December 7th 1:14 AM

A freedom of information may be forthcoming, blockages have stalemated and there is simple no other choice. Communicating within our local environment may seem a little more challenging than typical. Old ideas and correlating beliefs coming from many historic places converge, a new common understanding may be helpful or even necessary. A willingness to reach and stretch outside the typical paradigms can result and new responsibilities realized. A new day is dawning for humanity and the Earth. We as humans may feel called to take up our role as stewards to the Earth. A calling to trust who we are as sensual beings allows us to connect to the ongoing sensual orgasmic dynamic which characterizes the Earth's non-stop sustained sensual survival and individual reproduction. A freedom is in the air, for each individual Earth bound creature, including each human. Each individual will, or can, call for their individual rights as apart of this most fundamental plan. We as individuals can experience increasing strength simple by aligning to our endless energy source via congruency.

04 Saturday December 7th - Moon enters Pisces 4:50 AM

Neptune direct in Pisces Saturday December 7th 6:45 PM

Our feelings can be an enhanced information reveal. Once we know how to trust our sensitivity and vulnerability we can be shown many expanded views of our local concerns. As the Moon transits Pisces we may feel the boundaries between how we feel and the how others are feeling dissolving. Our feelings are experiencing less boundaries and as such we can stretch beyond our regular knowing when we follow our feelings and discover higher meanings. The revealing of corruption in our governing systems has been relentlessly proceeding and now we are headed into a social and cultural rebirth. We may feel the need for a new social foundation. An attraction to a new revolution may also be inspired, a revolution where all those who lived privilege while abusing others are equalized and harmonized such that there will be a fair security system and fair sharing. Authorities too, those who expect to carry on as authorities, are being challenged to find resonance with a higher meaning of their word. This is not a fantasy or a made up thing which became a religion or anything like that. This is a real call to higher vibrational alignment, which must take place in order for humanity to find it's place in an empathic world. Where we as a humanity are capable of governing ourselves fairly by sharing information and inclusion, by sharing love and light.

05 Monday December 9th - Moon enters Aries 8:39 AM

There can be a grand impulse to actions now however the impulse may be based on past ideas and dynamics and may not be relevant now? A past dynamic may resurface. A time when one was actively sticking up for themselves. The old ideas, for some individuals, must be fleshed out and owned. The actions of a proud individual and the thoughts and words which correlate with the actions all returning. It may seem as if some are taking actions now based on their past? Mars in Leo which just began a retrograde cycle on December 6th will remain retrograde until late February 2025. We may feel a loss of energy to take action, we may feel our motivations shift. Our partnership dynamics may call for some special sort of social acceptance. A humanitarian call for accepting and acknowledging the freedom of each individual is an important global dynamic which will be with us for a couple of decades. The need to accept others will be important over the next many years. An immediate dynamic for some individuals is to go back to their previous partnerships, could be current partnership, and commitment to whatever actions were left undone in the past. If such exist and the individual is able to own their part they will release much self doubt and begin to embrace new experiences and new relationships.

06 Wednesday December 11th - Moon enters Taurus 10:56 AM

The energy of past ideas can feel like it is blocking one's idea of accepting a new way community. This may trigger some to revisit their idea of self confidence. A new social situation, does it honor and validate one's self admiration? This can be a tricky dynamic as on the one hand we want to be self confident and on the other we need to be clear and honest with ourselves about what we are experiencing socially or publicly. A new way of understanding our sovereignty may be occurring. Our ability to be responsible for ourselves, our actions our thoughts, this can be a huge factor in allowing ones own natural evolution toward advancing awareness to proceed. Something beautiful and sensual about the organic quality of life is inspirational and motivational, an impulse to follow one's intuition feels like it will lead to abundant good fortune. Motivated to work hard and with commitment comes from the relative assurance that abundance will follow. Some kind of break through clarity assists one to realize something rather fantastic can be made practical and real. Something unexpected can affect one's commitment to focused work. Our connection with nature can tune our sensual resonance, we may become more intuitive if we mingle with nature, with the wild. An interesting understanding comes from an objective stance, the need for action and boldness is being balanced with the need to acknowledge a divine social presence. Those who resist natural social rights and freedoms from the perspective of self responsibility will experience many challenges as no matter what they use to distract or delay from the inevitable they must allow this purification to unroll. Elitism absent of self responsibility will fail until it releases all energy pooled within it's reservoirs.

07 Friday December 13th - Moon enters Gemini 12:23 PM

Full Moon Sunday December 15th 4:30 AM EST

Some conversations will seem unavoidable. "Lets talk about the past." It can feel like a time machine. If one is truly stuck in some sort of partnership miss alignment then the ideas which are contributing to SUCH blockage will be fleshed out. Unspoken words from the past may blast into today. If ideas were like bubbles we'd be in a bubble bath right now, suds everywhere. And you can hear them popping and popping, but you may not notice because there are so many, so many ideas. Eventually there will be a wanning yet this is not yet. If we can become observant and pay attention to what really hits our vulnerability and allow ourselves to navigate depending upon priority we will be able to witness and receive much clarity. If there would be a common denominator within all the various implied priorities it would be the call for self responsibility. The more we can move into acceptance and admission the more we will be able to see. There is always two sides to things, just like two sides of a coin, or knowing you can not have fear without anger or anger without fear. As a navigational focus look for whatever those two things may be.

08 Sunday December 15th - Moon enters Cancer 2:22 PM

Mercury direct Sagittarius Sunday December 15th 3:58 PM

A sustained concern over some past unresolved issues may be preoccupying some. For others the answer many have been seeking and asking for is likely right before them now, just reach out and have it. The willingness to take responsibility for something, especially if it is a shared responsibility, can lead to wonderful things. Like an unlocking of information relevant to one's hopes and dreams. An option to see a bigger picture, to evolve one's common setting within the encompassment of all of one's concerns, maybe just beyond a false vale. We can take a look. If there is something which triggers ones vulnerability than this can be a good beginning. Simple follow the implied or correlating belief which qualifies for an emotional triggering. Fear of feeling will not work and once we begin to understand the value of following our feelings we may see a grand deception in training individuals to not trust their feelings. Our feelings are our truth. We may notice there is a parallel thought with our feelings. If we can follow our feelings to the energy or memory of the distress we can perhaps identify the authority to whom we may have submitted to in the past, and call for a termination of any understanding or agreement.

Whatever we may have given our authority over to in the past, it is perhaps now time to reclaim some of this and get back to being a sovereign individual. An ability to accept our past will naturally occur when we realize that each memory contains an important portion of our energy. It's as if we are calling ourselves together, or defragmenting ourselves.

09 Tuesday December 17th - Moon enters Leo 6:40 PM

A strong feeling and urge to take action soon, immediately, is stalled. However many are confident and have lots of ideas. An ongoing battle of ideas or words may be beginning to show some progress, but wait, it's not over yet. One's sense of self significance may be more easily triggered. Past ideas and thoughts have a significant affect on today's decisions and actions. Some of these past ideas have support and so it can be challenging bringing everything up to date. One's plan and agenda may get hijacked, by their own self ambition. It will be important for some to remember to stay the course. If social recognition is no big deal then the individual will move forward without distraction. One's sense of self respect can be very important to them now as it is a sort of measure as to what they would be willing to submit to socially. Responsibilities involving family, or stewardship for the Earth, can also halt one's typically aggressive confident actions. A need to acknowledge community becomes apart of one's individual responsibilities. We cannot as individual's expect someone or another to take care of this, we must realize it is our job and responsibility as members of our community to form some kind of union. The individual will be challenged to make this realization at some point, this Leo Moon transit can act as a reminder that such truth is coming.

10 Friday December 20th - Moon enters Virgo 2:38 AM

Sun ingress Capricorn Saturday December 21st 4:22 AM

A thing which seems to be fantastic is being called out, it is being asked to show and prove it is real. Our flipped out fantastic anything goes far out ideas are over, it is time for focus! Bring your house in order and clear your mind. The Virgo Moon transit can call for clarity and order, and a dismissal of non-congruent irrelevant distractions. If things are obviously not real they are out. It is with this focus one can put advantage to their public duties and professional responsibilities, focus on this outer collective world can be strong. As a blockage of old ideas continues to be sorted there is hope and strong will committed to preserving and reinstating humanities freedom, a solid common idea must be found. In some cases the history of ideas is looked into. It is the Earth which may ultimately unite us as she is our most basic provider, all other values are extensions of her domestic dominion over our survival. Our sensuality and intuition can be linked into our resonance and affiliation with the Earth as well. Our protection from nasty EMF stuff and related harms will come from her as well. We know the Earth is changing now, many of the harmful things done to her are being harmonized yet it is for each individual to act in a sovereign way and to choose her logic. Doing so may assist or inspire others to be increasingly discerning in choosing what is real from what is illusion.

11 Sunday December 22nd - Moon enters Libra 2:09 PM

During this Sagittarius Moon cycle some may be reminded of their past partnerships and the ideas shared. Ideas from past partnership endeavors or a romantic union, these ideas from somewhere in the past were likely given significant energy. Do these ideas still stand strong in one's self idea? If we are returning to a past issue or incident then we are perhaps being shown something. The reliance on a partner can become a distraction from one's own sovereignty. Typically our sovereignty survives just fine in a partnership as we all can naturally partner up and be very happy this way. The Moon's south node currently transits Libra and has been there since mid June 2023 indicating a reminder of where sovereignty was squelched for a relationship commitment. If such a karmic state was working itself through it is during this Libra Moon transit that an indicator of such can be noticed by the individual. In the meantime many will feel motivated to be sovereign in their individuality as Mars continues to transit Leo. The retrograde motion of Mars will cause many to hold off on bold moves for their own cause. Partners who would like to share important things can do so, especially if these things are related to self respect being extended to each and every individual.

12 Wednesday December 25th - Moon enters Scorpio 3:07 AM

Resources are available to those who can see value in things which others may have overlooked. When involved with shared resources shared ownership, an individual needs to know where their personal responsibilities begin and end. Agreements and contracts may outline one's role concerning a shared value. Single ownership responsibilities are typically handled differently. Sharing is a natural thing for individual's, we survive on this Earth by sharing. Controlling resources can be set up to facilitate sharing or controlling resources can be setup to maintain a command over the sovereignty of others. If we feel a sacred connection with our spouse our partner then it is with this individual we would naturally be sharing our most valuable resources with. Our body which is our most valued physical possession would also be shared with our marriage partner. Through shared values we invest in each other. Sometimes we make sacrifices because we are feeling this is where the harmony calls for our attention. We also benefit from the consideration our partner has for our shared union as well. We can feel the goodness of sharing with love and selflessness, we can feel the quality of security we have created for ourselves our partner and our loved ones, it's all about sharing.

13 Friday December 27th - Moon enters Sagittarius 2:48 PM

There is a foundational connection with empathy which is being reinstated and this is causing all would be, or wannabe, authorities to take a shower and clean away all prejudice. This Sagittarius Moon cycle may feature a few standoffs, especially regarding ideas and beliefs. Even now near the end as the Moon returns to Sagittarius we are potentially facing a standoff. An individual's words seem to be challenged or blocked by another's? Religious ideas leading to definite decisions for example may have been fleshed out as the nitty gritty details are called out for the sake of clarity, a new commitment to understanding these historic ideas may be happening. New thoughts are being promoted and it is insisting that they be included in today's understanding. Rewriting scripture may not be a good safe feeling for some? However the rebirth of empathic authority may be occurring and this can be a positive force, especially as we rebuild our communities.

14 Sunday December 29th - Moon enters Capricorn 11:38 PM

The new Moon in Capricorn will flesh out the controllers and leaders and have them respect and acknowledge each other. This could indicate a bosses show down. Ideas verses empathy, can't we all get along? Finding the harmonizing point would create much power with a very positive character. It is like going off to school to study or upgrade one's skill, so they can be a better controller, a better leader. The definition of controller is one who acts with consent. We benefit from the talents of others as they likely benefit from our own talent. There are leadership roles and some may vie for these, they may have to study, go off to school for a bit, have some means of learning the ropes, even hands on experience. The challenge would be future leaders have right now is to merge many of the old paradigms, still of value, with newly acquired insights related to who we are as energy beings within these unfolding blueprints of existence.
