Overview

New Moon in Aquarius
Wednesday January 29th 7:37 AM EST 2024

"A foundational belief defining authority agrees all is energy."

This will be the first new Moon cycle since Pluto's sustained Aquarius ingress. Individual sovereignty will be given a pathway however it is up to the individual to choose to be responsible for their creative presence with greater communities. Also this is the first Moon cycle since the Moon's north node Pisces ingress. And Neptune has already been making conjunctions to the Pisces north node. Religious and spiritual like individuals will see the authority behind teachings of these sorts. As Saturn continues to transit Pisces and with the cleanse of Capricorn at the hands of Pluto, Saturn really is like a new born baby right now, this little guy may still be in the womb. With the new Moon we as individuals can potentially anchor this high frequency compassion and create a mutual resonance with the organic life around us, also sharing in this experience. Ceres is strongly tied to retrograde Mars at the new Moon and they are positioned to react powerfully. When Mars goes direct on February 23rd 9:01 PM EST Ceres will perhaps begin to take action. Ceres here will signal a parental or nurturing force which is here to protect the young and to also protect the Earth and her ability to yield a golden harvest for all her Earth bound creatures. Juno in Scorpio is also a player in this Moon cycle and is in a strong aspect with the Neptune conjunction already mentioned occurring in Pisces. We may see some gallant efforts of statement meant to assure an interested party we are indeed interested in compassion of divine feminine nature. Jupiter will also go direct in Gemini this Moon cycle, Tuesday February 4th and many will begin sharing and hearing ideas. Uranus Jupiter and Mars will all go direct during this Aquarius Moon cycle indicating definite actions and moves. Look for any stalemates to be resolved and simple busted through. Many who have been idle will likely be taking actions of some sort before the end of this Moon cycle on February 27th.

Our relationship with the Earth is important, as we feel her moving into a galactic resonance we too will experience this. The greatest social group of all is Gaia and we as organic creatures are apart of this precious club. It is this club which is joining other like minded spirited beings, many in a reunion fashion.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Aquarius the focus will be on ideals and invention which support social well being. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of experiencing visions of freedom and all the opportunities and inspirations which spring from utopian focus. Such envisioned delights bring forward a feeling about one's self admiration. An evolution of self awareness occurs as the nature of how self admiration is related to public interaction is observed. Those born under the Sun sign Aquarius have a natural propensity to self admiration harmonized with social ideals. They naturally and easily move beyond boundaries of limitation which are qualified by social distinction. Not to exclude others as we all have Aquarius somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would access Aquarius propensity for idealism. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic inclination toward social and public good will of each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I experience social ideals ...

Capricorn: by how I observe and accept all who I come in contact with.

Sagittarius: by how I accept what others think and say without judgment.

Scorpio: by accepting the way I feel about myself relative to my social involvement.

Libra: by allowing myself to be filled with joy and inspiration as I embrace social freedom.

Virgo: by being discerning as to what is and what is not a personal responsibility.

Leo: by recognizing how my partnerships align me with new social potentials.

Cancer: by allowing these ideals to be creatively supported by my partnership experiences.

Gemini: by trusting and accepting new ways of being involved with humanity and the planet.

Taurus: through my dedication to the public, through my career.

Aries: by allowing my spontaneous self to be publicly involved.

Pisces: by being a member of the greatest social club of all, by accepting my inclusion within the symbiosis of Mother Earth.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

01 New Moon in Aquarius Monday January 29th 7:37 AM EST 2024*Uranus direct Thursday January 30th at 11:24 AM EST*

The acceptance and freedom the Aquarius new Moon cycle indicates may trigger unexpected socializing. Now with Pluto transiting Aquarius we will witness many interesting things, including the clean up of elitism. An instant practical knowing can occur, a sudden wisdom regarding social harmony perhaps. Unexpected changes in regards to security can be striking many all at once. The congruency of a resilient foundation can have many rewards, an ability to move and flow with important changes while remaining comfortable with one's foundational preferences offers direction. Our investment in ourselves in other words takes on many perspectives or facets. The nature of abundance will be connected with our understanding of our partnership with the Earth, as she is the provider of the resources which keep us alive. We may need money however it is more directly that we need a fair fruitful partnership with the Earth. It's as if the Earth remembers who she is and she is waking up. As our reality is physically tied to her density we too are challenged to wake up in some way. We may be as such awakening to higher qualities of food air or water. The organic quality of purity and the harmonic enrichment which occurs when we are congruent or whole with our Earth who sustains us now facilitates a pure connection with our health and our Earth. It is as always up to each individual to feel the sensual quality of their humanity, to allow this presence to evolve and extend itself via sensual sensitivity and mutual resonance with the organic life which surrounds us.

02 Thursday January 30th 2025 - Moon enters Pisces 5:54 PM

"My life is like a movie?" Complete with intermissions and suspenseful endings the drama level for some may be bouncing and rising. As the Moon transits Pisces life may at times feel unreal. Life may feel like a dream with one idea following into another. Boundaries recede for a moment and we can see more of what concerns us. We may want to see with our feelings and stretch our awareness into sources and anchor points which sustains them. Our ability to see and experience the bigger picture increases when we feel and remain centered, we are able to be objective as we experience an expanding panorama. The strong of faith can make some nice connections with their spiritual team, a special connection may be felt. Just like dreams we may be merry and happy for a while then running from something in the next moment, if we could be lucid however the whole drama will change. As we take responsibility for all we must deal with we increase our ability and strength in the energetic worlds as well. Right now it is good to just look at what we are noticing, feeling, what are we allowing ourselves to witness and know about ourselves and the world around us. Our ability to be honest and accept ourselves with truth and without judgment can reset our impulsive self, we can via impeccable self acceptance take this opportunity to own and reprogram ourselves. We will surely be tested in some way as the impulsive self is triggered in the future however for now we are owning our part in things and resetting our reactions.

03 Saturday February 1st - Moon enters Aries 8:11 PM

As life is like we like it we have to be careful not to get too use to it. We may get a change up? If we are truly living from our heart we will except any apparent interruptions as opportunities to feel and experience new things. Sometimes the unexpected happens and sometimes the expected happens, either way something happens. We may prefer to have steady sailing yet we are perhaps called to be brave in some way. An inconvenient event may occur. An emotional wave may have to be dealt with, we may have to survive a flood, hopefully it is a brief and small one. A feeling experience may have the benefit of moving stuck or pooling energy. A long time friendship may for example be calling. Something may cause us to look to our faith, to question faith or to call on spirit for clarity or direction. It can be easier even for the hardest heart to feel right now. Also the Aries Moon ingress can cause one to want to take action especially if there is something known to be pending. It may feel as if one wants to take action but just cannot, for example something around the home needs attention yet action is delayed? If there are those who are experiencing an interruption then surely things will restart or begin again soon. Ideally all involved will share their feeling experience in a way where all can benefit from the experience.

04 Monday February 3rd - Moon enters Taurus 10:35 PM

Venus ingress Aries Tuesday February 4th 2:58 AM

Jupiter Direct Gemini Tuesday February 4th 4:42 AM

This can feel like a nice time to simply let life in. If this is an option then a connection with nature will potentially be an expansive experience. However one may also be dealing with commitments. If one has made a commitment to be apart of a team for example, then there will likely come a time when their commitment is called on by the team. We may have recently made a commitment to ourselves. Either way we may have to service our commitment and demonstrate to ourselves or others our intention. This is an ideal time to service any commitment to the Earth which one may have agreed to. We can simply come forward now with an acknowledgement if this is correct and in harmony with one's own experience. We may find ourselves embracing our impulsive self more naturally, we may feel an urge to act independently. Since the new Moon last Wednesday a practical nature may be stepping forward, a practical wisdom may be experienced. We may benefit from some math or basic logic for example, especially with team work. Partnerships can also share experiences where a common vision must be held. An urge to acquire appreciation from one's target of interest may lead them to be increasingly close and cosy. A fairness in sharing is extended to sharing our bodies. Ideas from the past may begin to flow forward now. When we have all our ducks in an order, to the best of our understanding, we are better able to deal with the unexpected. Pent up ideas from the past may leak through, this may be a precursor? Even though Love of Spirit and the boundless can be captivating, a practical eye is never the less suggested.

05 Thursday February 6th - Moon enters Gemini 1:45 AM

It can be as if a silence has been lifted. We may begin to hear a few things from others, we may have a few things to share ourselves. Could be about recent experiences or perhaps something which has been grinding away in the mind mill for a few weeks or months waiting a time to be of use. As we are experiencing an Aquarius Moon cycle we may be feeling the goodness of community or we may be feeling the importance of freewill and free speech in community. Knowing thought creates we will be drawing or giving energy to a certain type of community. How realistic are we? A growing belief in humanity can have it's payoffs as new directions seem possible if individual's, or a group, would truly believe in themselves to the extent that they can take responsibility. Many things are happening however many things are also not happening. When mutual resonance is there things happen. And yet when things are all tuned to different foundations and bases we have lots of collisions. In those communities where individual's can share a vision and get on the same page their power will be evident, they will be able to anchor their sovereignty. Again this is the extension of self responsibility occurring on a community level. We begin as individuals to be responsible, perhaps we will inspire or show the way to others, as an example. Individual's may be holding onto ideas which have been affecting their connection with community, things may change now as ideas are able to more easily flow. Once ideas are considered relative to a congruent common idea or foundation they can be naturally processed, and we can move forward. There may be some resistance as too many new ideas all at once may feel threatening to some. The sense that individual's are allowed to be and expected to be free thinkers can feel supported now and it is this self respect which directs one toward their own sovereignty. There is a special urge and desire to be brave right now, this energy seems to inspire passion however may not sustain a physical presence, at least not yet.

06 Saturday February 8th - Moon enters Cancer 6:05 AM

Is it a good idea for an individual to send their parental urges into a social dynamic? If we embrace mutual freedom and call others brothers and sisters then here as the Moon makes the Cancer ingress our heightened sensitivity can potentially connect many to the domestic memory and energy of their home and family. Our personal responsibilities may call us to be nurturing in some way as this leads to our own well being. Today our mind can feel bright and we may even experience brilliance. An opportunity to tune this brightness toward past emotional feelings, especially if they are being remembered now, and to feel their significant meaning is at hand. An ability to do so, see the significant meaning, will lead easily to an objective overview where conducting patterns can be felt, their significance and authority revealed. As a natural outcome of such self witnessing we may find our impulsive self has been adjusted, we may naturally make different decisions. Our sensitivity can also feel blocked right now as Mars continues retrograde in Cancer. Saturn in Pisces trine's retrograde Mars in Cancer and we can feel the emotional significance of authority and boundaries. Be careful what you wish for as Mars will soon go direct and recreate the trine in early April. Our memories regarding such task master things may be retuning, our vulnerability retuning to us. Our memories may have a religious or spiritual significance to us, we want to be careful how we regard them. If we are still feeling the significance of something after many years likely it is good for us to look at it. Our vulnerability or judgment around authority may for example return as a memory for us to now see the past from an advancing perspective. It's as if our vulnerability is our ticket to freedom.

07 Monday February 10th - Moon enters Leo 12:02 PM

Full Moon Wednesday February 12th 8:55 AM EST

Our self acceptance will have social proportions, if this is so then it is during this Leo Moon transit that we can flesh out any important energy concerns we may have. Depending upon what one's self acceptance is tied to one may feel the freedom they expect and prefer is what others are agreeable to. Ideally an individual will be independent from the beliefs of others in terms of being responsible to themselves. Their connection with others may be seen as a reflection of their own expectation or extension of the quality of harmony they hold a space for. We need to be responsible for the quality of energy we share with others however this energy doesn't define us. Our self acceptance when tied to our ability to accept what we are creating will lead us to a sense of peace. Here as the Moon transits Leo our self esteem may be tested, our sense of being fair to others is it extended back to our selves? As we discover our self defining paradigms and beliefs we may begin to see our significance has been designed and farmed for us, and we may not want this. It may not be working out for us, it may be leading to financial issues, health issues relationships issues, perhaps it is time to consider a different type of self acceptance? Our world is currently being purged of inappropriate self significance, individual's who's self importance has been tied to the grief and problems of countless others. As these countless others begin to gain a clear perspective the power over them falls quickly and the entire system begins to collapse. Their time is ending. Pluto's sustained Aquarius presence beginning last November will be with us for a couple of decades, inappropriate self importance will have to be dealt with via Pluto's fire.

08 Wednesday February 12th - Moon enters Virgo 8:08 PM

Mercury ingress Pisces Friday February 14th 5:31 AM

Running one's world solely from the head can catch up with them, as in being trapped in one's own logic. When we lead with our heart things can be more harmonically aligned if we so choose, there are many benefits. Our feeling center may influence our head more easily than our own will and heart center if we are in the habit of placing our authority outside ourselves. Being apart of a plan, a team plan, may feel good until the steaks appear to be too high for some. There is no backing out if one is intending to stick with their commitment. Perhaps in the future things will be more carefully considered, we want to remember to allow our heart and will to have appropriate influence. What would really be the happiest most joy filled choice or outcome for us and look seriously in that direction. If one were overly concerned about their public image then it is this which will be manifested, our concerns are given manifestation energy if we are not in the habit of being responsible. Any intention to avoid responsibility for something can easily lead to becoming lost in one's own logic. Again we need to be responsible for what we create and what we agree to. In doing so we may become more proficient at self observation and self acceptance. If we are experiencing freedom and acceptance in our partnerships then this can be a time of busting fantasy. Our ability to see through non-real or delusional things and ideas can become more astute if our partnerships are in harmony. Currently it is mutual acceptance regarding freedom as a basic human right which can harmonize or polarize a partnership. If there has been a flood of religious or spiritual ideas and opinions occurring then it is now as the Moon transits Virgo that discernment is called for.

09 Saturday February 15th - Moon enters Libra 6:46 AM

New discoveries may correlate with altering the past. Partnership understanding can be boosted by an objective look at the past. Our memories have a way of including the things we have maintained a connection with. If we are remembering something then we remain connected to it, we are still sharing energy with a past dynamic. For some, over the past two years, a history of their partnership experiences may have been recalled. An intention to set things right or to understand one's past from the highest understanding now can trigger an adventure. We may even trigger some dream experiences. Either way there is a potential that a larger or enhanced understanding can be achieved or aligned to. We must be willing to accept responsibility in an independent way. A concern over family may also trigger an adventure where new things are either understood or discovered. Some may feel motivated to show their partner that they can be independent. Independent actions can however feel sluggish. A feeling that one may be targeted for reprimand can cause them to delay or act slowly. Individual's who are use to someone else there to take them forward, an ally or partner, may feel strange as they go it alone, however it can feel right to do so. We would not want to continue any other way. Companionship is a good and even necessary thing however it cannot precede individual sovereignty.

10 Monday February 17th - Moon enters Scorpio 7:20 PM

Sun ingress Pisces Tuesday February 18th 5:08 AM

It can feel an important priority for some individual's to have their partnerships echo or enhance their religious or spiritual evolution. A parental type energy is called for a spiritual awakening, a reunion with a divine feminine aspect of oneself. A guardian energy who has actively been in service as a steward to the Earth will naturally align to their higher emotional body. It's as if the Earth is experiencing a divine feminine revival and this will play out through particular individual's who are aligned to this natural resonance without distortion. The sacred feeling of sharing the Earth can lead to a sensual organic awakening, our natural resonance and kinship with the elemental kingdoms can potentially come alive. Our ability to share in a natural way and without hesitation, sharing the things we require to survive and bring us organic comforts. Our ability to share this way was at one time so natural it would be a mystery as to why it would be so controlled now. There is a breaking free from an inappropriate control of survival type resources and many will feel and experience this in their body as they insist on their sovereignty. And just like the phone company there may be a claim that a contract of some sort was agreed to? We can easily pay it off or just say no, either way our responsibility will linger with us if it is truly our own, you cannot escape karma nor would anyone want to. Our ability to share and create mutual harmony is natural and it has an organic proportion, we may be witnessing this natural resonate order of things returning, coming alive, and in our own bodies.

11 Thursday February 20th - Moon enters Sagittarius 7:56 AM

Ideas needed to lead others via religious order may find there are lots of ideas and words and thoughts which are standing in the way. A public message will be difficult if the presenter is not prepared to be challenged. Delusions involving superior people or gods who have power over others is a drains treat these days. Goodbye as there is simple not enough harmonic energy resonance to create a mutual foundation for their mind games any longer, who wants that stuff? They really need the disinformation network to allow themselves to exist. Once upon a time a hierarchy of negative energy harmonics excited and facilitated a fake kingdom. Then 2012 came and the reset was on. In the dregs of their last efforts we witness our own role in where we were perhaps not as clear as we could have been. However perhaps not all is lost and we can still do this together? Our enthusiasm to learn and even remember our own grand journey which brought us here, can this excitement trigger a revival where our potential to experience a wonderful ideal life is very real? If we can enjoy the idea and thought of being our own ruler we would have to be responsible for what we are creating and drawing to ourselves, there would be no passing the buck. As we are clear with our commitments and as we yield to our own energy creations via admission we will move toward a powerful place, a place where our individual thoughts will extend into the congruent presence we have become.

12 Saturday February 22nd - Moon enters Capricorn 6:10 PM

Mars Direct Cancer Sunday February 23rd 9:01 PM

There has been, over the past several days and today as well, a divine feminine energy gracing our lives, a sense of empathy and compassion has been covering our world. The feeling that we are one and that there are, in reality, no boundaries between our hearts and will can be naturally realized. As we choose to allow this energy to flood over us and merge with us we may begin to see ourselves better. In so doing we may feel how anger has replaced fear or where impatience was chosen simple because the idea of who we seem to be turning out to be is perhaps not pleasant. The reality is we are all perfect have been and always will be, our task as such is to wakeup and realize who we are. Many other classes of beings here, no judgment as all was done with agreement, had figured out how to hy-jack the human divine spark and thus create the world they want through our submission to their godship. This current inrush of divine feminine energy is available to humanity as self responsible self love, and not so available to those who would like to continue to enslave us. The divine feminine energy rushing in is a welcome greeting to those who are waking up to self acceptance. A growing concern that one is doing the right religious or spiritual things can begin to create a banquet of questions as the ideal behind many beliefs seem to be taking a break or are being restudied, a new understanding may be found? The feeling and emotional elements of any ongoing concern can seem to be the main issue. Our feelings are our truth, if something is not settling in with our sense of comfort or security we would do well to question things. Our emotional reaction as always will be indicative of our beliefs and so it is the discovery of what we have been assuming to be absolutely real which perhaps needs our attention such that a balancing or adjustment can occur.

13 Tuesday February 25th - Moon enters Aquarius 12:41 AM

It can go from no one in the cue to everyone there at once, as if everyone gets the same idea at the same time. Mars is direct and individual's are going after what they want. Those who are already skilled at quick creative decisions will do well, others will too however it is the individual's quick draw to be creative which moves things in their favor. An urge to demonstrate one's conversational popularity may be motivated by their interest in another as a potential partner. An impulse of courage and one is speaking publicly. Withheld actions regarding religious authority are released, ideas are understood in an absolute way, at least that is the pretence. A high frequency divine feminine presence continues to flood our world. Feelings of empathy toward others can be high, it could snowball, especially if some specific individual's continue to hold this frequency. As self significance is given a clean pathway forward by replacing failing elitism, accidental leaders may appear as their own success and integrity is an inspiration to others. Once a community is able to form a union of some sort they will begin to give energy to a shared assumed future. If you are able to plant the seeds now for future boundaries and future authority what would you plant?

14 Thursday February 27th - Moon enters Pisces 3:48 AM

An opportunity to think clearly is at hand however we must be willing to accept the divine spirit within each individual human. The logical mind will witness this experience and hopefully be able to harmonically integrate this divine compassion sense into all other understandings. This can be an interesting opportunity to observe one's own impulsive energy. As we experience Pisces energy together we can experience the dissolving of boundaries together. The boundaries are artificial in the first place and it is this energy, beyond boundaries, which we have the potential to tune into and realize. We may remember this expansive awareness, perhaps from when we were younger it was more common to us, or from some other personal experience. Our affiliation with the divine feminine energy is connected with all of this. It is in the acceptance! We as a collective humanity, are experiencing a sort of Saturn rebirth. If this is so we really want to get this right. Our future can be affected by the compassion we natural feel for each other. We simple remember this. The Pisces new Moon is on Wednesday February 27 at 7:46 PM EST, a good time to make clearly envisioned intentions.
