Overview

New Moon solar eclipse in Aries
Saturday March 29th 6:59 AM EST 2025

"I am a confident warrior."

Nine days after the Vernal Equinox we experience a new Moon in Aries. The Vernal Equinox marks the beginning of a one year cycle, as well as the closure of the last cycle. It is a new year of sorts. We can see this recent annual cycle was about recovering one's courage and removing the tethers from one's impulsive self. This may have led to family dynamics and domestic situations being sorted out. Our ability to act independently may have been squelched, possibly due to a misunderstanding in a partnership. This dynamic period has shifted, the focus now moving to "What was I thinking?". Or some logical track may seem to come along which satisfies one's current need to understand the ways and means of an arrangement. We may see lots of figuring out during this new annual cycle. This new year offers an opportunity for individuals to see the logic of their beliefs and, if they choose, to make executive type choices for one's self. Our family history, or one's career history, one's partnership history and dynamics, are there delusions to be aware of? Again last year's cycle ideally caused an individual to not be so dependant on a partnership support, and instead to trust their impulsive self. Now, with the current cycle, we are given the opportunity to test our belief system within a logical constraint. Ideally individuals will remove bad decisions by identifying fantasies and delusions which are presenting them selves as hard facts. This first new Moon in Aries will launch many into this new assignment. Being aware that actions which are not congruent with one's spiritual truth will likely be based on delusion, what delusions are ready to be let go, what new facts change the panorama of one's journey?

We may have witnessed or have been a part of a social transformation, and now we can sit back and say well I am so glad that is over. But it is not, this social change will be relentless and will be many times more difficult to deal with if the individual refuses to make the changes that it is obvious they need to make. What we had historically become use to, well some of things may have to be let go of. If the individual is seeing social change they would be wise to remember their our personal significance, doing so can protect the individual and assist them at making choices which will navigate them through difficulties simple by creating harmony in their future as opposed to casting their past into their future. The individual who is able to be self responsible, their experiences, their journey, will be exciting and challenging, a valued experience, they will likely be accidental leaders. Taken from period 11 below.

Uranus wields truth like a sword, and when it moves with intention there is no heads up, you just have to be in integrity to avoid immediate and possible dramatic change. Integrity and Uranus work very well together, in this case changes free the individual on a level which is simple not reachable by negative entities of any type. When a real human is impeccable with self love they are untouchable, their natural resonance with Uranian energy is liken to having one's own personal EXCALIBUR! Taken from period ?? below. Uranus has been transiting Taurus since 2018 and will begin a Gemini ingress this summer, July 8th.

Sun Sign

With this Moon cycle beginning in Aries the focus will be on the impulsive aspect of self. The current report, including the fourteen period cycle below, is scripted from the perspective of experiencing and witnessing how one goes after things. How an individual responds with action implies beliefs which are integrated within the individual. These actions reveal the presence of beliefs which are more foundational than what the same individual may assume or claim to believe, as in "actions speak louder than words". An evolution of self awareness occurs as the nature of one's courage becomes known. Those born under the Sun sign Aries have a natural propensity to be immediate as desire and ambition is expedited through impulse. They naturally and easily respond to their impulsive self. Not to exclude others as we all have Aries somewhere in our personal astrology charts, the following is a simplified list intended to indicate where each Sun sign would access Aries propensity for action and courage. There are many accents in each personal astrology chart where an individual's energy will be characterized by an apparent alternate Sun sign, as in being their Moon sign. In these cases there may be personal alignments which support a deviation of one's will from their highest order. The intention here is to clarify the basic inclination that an individual has to harmoniously and effectively go after things by being specific to each Sun sign and thus create added meaning to the content of the report. These can also serve as healthy intentions.

I experience courageous action ...

Pisces: when paying attention to what I experience immediately around me and servicing my immediate needs.

Aquarius: when I listen objectively to others and am clear with what it is I am to communicate.

Capricorn: by observing and accepting my feeling responses which are related to my agenda.

Sagittarius: by following my intentions to have a good time when involved with others.

Scorpio: whenever I embrace my responsibilities.

Libra: when I am in a partnership which shares an agenda.

Virgo: when I feel the power of what a harmonious partnerships can lead to.

Leo: when I expand my world by adventuring into fresh new territory.

Cancer: when I move on my ambition and desire to be of value to others though my work.

Gemini: when I associate with others, either friends or the public.

Taurus: when I fill my thinking concepts with emotional truth and extend my awareness out beyond mental boundaries.

Birthdays

The Birthdays section is a list of birthdays which are being strongly affected by current astrological alignments. If a birthday is not listed here it doesn't mean that a person is not experiencing significant astrological influences which are dynamically paralleling life changes. After all we are experiencing tremendous Earth changes now, nobody is excluded. The people who do have these birth dates are being strongly influenced now and are likely experiencing life altering dynamics. In some cases great opportunities are occurring and in others great challenges are brought forward. Since all challenges can be re-framed as opportunities all those who have these birthdays are experiencing great live changing opportunities. If a birthday is just a day or so previous to the listed date then the person has recently experienced a major change. Due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the change is not necessarily complete, it may return. If a birthday follows a date listed the person will soon experience a major change. Again due to the retrograde nature of transiting planets the person may have already begun a major change which seems to have backed off, and will most definitely return.

Fourteen Period Format

The Pathfinder Report follows the Moon through fourteen periods in 29 days beginning on the new Moon. The Fourteen periods, or phases, follow the Moon's journey through the entire Moon cycle. Each period will have a particular flavor or tone and is interpreted here as a unique opportunity. The first period begins at the moment of new Moon and continues until the Moon's first ingress. The Moon will ingress into the next zodiac sign thirteen times yielding fourteen unique periods. As each individual's journey and process is a unique personal adventure this report is to be considered a generalization. In some cases example scenarios are given to assist in providing clarity as to how specific astro alignments may be experienced.

01 New Moon in Aries Saturday March 29th 6:59 AM EST 2024Mercury retrograde ingress Pisces Saturday March 29th 10:19 PMNeptune ingress Aries Sunday March 30th 8:00 AM*

New actions on old ideas will occur if delusions are considered real. An analytical approach may be the way to go this time, if one is facing important decisions. Reviewing our own understanding of our recent experiences may trigger some active introspection. If we are ready to take action now we must then be clear as to what had happen in the past, correct? Past beliefs are being fleshed out and to the individual they will appear now as delusions, or ideas now proven to be false. There is a cleansing going on of sorts, it is a cleansing where ideas which are now clearly known to be irrelevant are drained from one's decision making process. We, in other words, are unclogging our logical mind. Delusion and fantasy has it's place in our reality and will not be tossed out like crap, no way, our imagination and our fantasy world are connected, fantasy has it value, absolutely. Right now we need to be clear about why we make the choices we make. There will be many this year, this new solar cycle, who will sharpen their skates and get back in the groove of being good at reasoning. Hey, we may even score a goal for the team. A return to common sense it is. As this is the first new Moon of the new cycle we may want to launch our visions with commitment and actions. The solar eclipse will serve as a master craftsmen booster, whatever your craft may be. Our idea of what we want to do our ideal way of being involved with others with life with our family with our lover what is it? Again we don't want to hy-jack our own desire and inspiration by getting hooked into some scene in a movie? Each will choose their own and perhaps their current decision will have a logical parallel which satisfies confidence and trust. Go for it!

02 Sunday March 30th 2025 - Moon enters Taurus 4:17 PM

Analyzing the rhythm of our own habits and vices can yield an expanded perspective. Neptune's Aries ingress will be very interesting. With Mars transiting Cancer from September 4th of 2024 through to April 19th of this year, Mars did spend seven weeks in Leo during this Cancerian ride however, the influence indicated for Aries and action and courage will be a sustained sensitivity. The Leo ingress indicating a brush with self respect, yet really one's vulnerability has had it's cage rattled, assuming one has had their feelings locked up. Now with Neptune in Aries a degree of sensitivity may have just opened a another door, this one into one's higher emotional self. Each individual will have their own experience, what one is ripe for will surely be granted passage, tracking one's direction and focus. Our sense of security and comfort may be a priority during this transit, we may associate this comfort with certain physical things. Some may long for and remember the past fondly, as if this were the time where they had comfort. A connection with the past may be calling one to reconsider their current situation and to be wise with what one takes as real. A sense of caution may be felt as we continue to unravel some things from our past experiences which were affecting our security. We don't want to get lost in false ideas anymore, assuming one has admitted this, no, we want to have our wits about us, we want to be clear as to what is happening. Our family and our home may be involved in our concern. It is our sense of foundation and security which is important and as such there is little interest in fantasy or could be's.

03 Tuesday April 1st - Moon enters Gemini 4:27 PM

An imagined journey can seem real and facilitated. A need to feel involved with others can produce within one's imagination, and within their idea of things, an ideal sense of what would be their most natural experience. Even if it doesn't pan out in the physical, the power of one's imagination can make it happen at some level. With both Venus and Mercury retrograde and both now in Pisces we can see a natural gravitation to any stuck ideas within one's self idea. A triggering can cause one to feel once again what has happen in the past. Or an ongoing desire which is typically held quiet within one's mind comes forward and rolls out as a fantasized drama? There may well be a clear path to one's higher emotional self, one's divine feminine connection is making available opportunities. If past fantasies are coming up then the individual would be wise to observe these as there may be important ideas of one's past self blocking current opportunities. As reality ideas play out and the individual observers him or her self, a realization can potentially occur, an enlightened insight into one's captivated state is revealed. Some may return to child like dreams or the ideal romance or being recognized socially in some way. To the extend that these dreamy versions of one's self are hy-jacking one's opportunity to anchor the higher emotional self, the individual can choose to observe and own their self ideas and longings. The freedom they experience is likely waiting for them as Neptune is now in Aries and the warriors of compassion are quickening their resonance and presence.

04 Thursday April 3rd - Moon enters Cancer 6:51 PM

Saturn in Pisces sextile Uranus in Taurus Friday April 4th

Stepping on the gas and getting things going can feel important however a clarity regarding the feeling aspects must be considered. It's as if the new rules everywhere contain a consideration of feelings which in the past was not considered relevant. An expression or action from a spiritual leader may occur, or it may be expected and as such a manifestation of religious authority can be played out. In general a foundation of things can be more feeling and insightful toward compassion than what was represented in the past. Authorizes who are not in the lane of real empathy right now will have trouble with their actions. And just as when the Moon transited Gemini and one's mind was typically hy-jacked by past unconcluded desires, here it is the feelings and actions associated with them that are heaving up from the past and calling for recognition and truth. Our ability to again own our past, and to realize these past returns and memories are happening because they need to be cleared. A blocking can potentially be resolved for the individual. We may benefit from moving forward yet first there may be something we need get over. As the Moon transits Cancer we may have a feeling insight into who we believe ourselves to be, we may have outgrown this, yet it some way the longings got lodged or imprinted on us. Now may be the time to receive our past from an emotional accepting perspective. It is likely we are far more aware now, we have the ability to remember feel and observe our own decision making process in action in a more insightful way. We can imagine a new path. This happens when we naturally embrace and accept ourselves while seeing and feeling the bigger picture. The space we hold and share with others will be the by-product of our self acceptance.

05 Sunday April 6th - Moon enters Leo 12:35 AM

Mercury direct Monday April 7th 6:09 AM

An inspirational moment may be created by individuals who are truly yearning and longing for a connection with others and a connection with nature. In our innocence we may have at one time become inspired about something and were able to make a commitment and get a taste of real life. Looking back now one might see how innocent they were, naive and inexperienced. Yet at the same time we would not want to change our past knowing now how many hurdles there were. If all the challenges were known up front we may have preferred to be more experienced before beginning a challenging project, we may delay or find some other reason to not go

New Moon forward. In any case the opportunity to move on an inspired idea or vision is a kind of special report number 271 creation in itself, we would not want to waste it. Typically a young individual, say a teenager, will want to break free. And so everything is seen from the focus of getting involved in a favorable anticipated experience. If we are experienced, been there done that sort of thing, we may make a different decision. With age comes wisdom and those who have achieved wisdom perhaps it is you who are called to hold the space for another? We don't want to jump in and do it for them or even be too helpful, other than holding the space it's hands off, let them do it. For example one's own son or daughter, or any other really, can experience and learn about their own creative nature if they are given the energetic space to act on their own ideas. We hold space for others naturally, and many may not even be aware that they do this. Knowing how much is involved in a project will perhaps be less overwhelming to an experienced individual. We may see senior individuals as well taking on exciting self involved projects. As a chaperon we intervene if there is danger. However the experience of the challenge and the dynamic is all like an example, the real gem here is an individual discovering their creative magic!

06 Tuesday April 8th - Moon enters Virgo 9:41 AM

"Lets get out of this fog." Some may feel the need to drive toward clarity and logic, things that make sense. When realistic responsibilities come along a personal executive type decision must be made. Once one can see clearly what their responsibility is they will no longer be focused on delusion, or things which are nebulous and deemed not substantially real. April 16th with the Mercury Aries ingress a shift or even a spring board into facts and reasoning can be expected, like cutting a tether it can feel like a refreshing launch into looking at and dealing with real facts. Getting turned round and pointed in the right direction for one's specific responsibilities can begin now. We may be getting a read on our own past habits and vices, as if we can observe them. Ideally the individual will do this, observe them, as opposed to jumping into them and riding the same train. Instead we have an opportunity to move into an observer role. We can observe many things, we can feel the urge for example to jump into an old routine. We can feel and sense the reason for our interest in things, things which we may have out grown. A growing resonance with the spiritual realms can also be occurring for the individual. The so called fog of delusion and confusion as such can have a different meaning. Here the individual will know what is real in terms of personal significance for them via their vulnerability. The fragmentation of the human soul will reverse itself when the local human is ripe and ready for this quality of self love. Solar cycle beginning on the Vernal Equinox indicates the awakening of many to their vulnerability as a beacon from their higher awareness. And this will require an astute discernment as one navigates through the Piscian seas as a compassionate navigator, Neptune in Aries style.

07 Thursday April 10th - Moon enters Libra 9:13 PM

Full Moon in Libra Saturday April 12th 8:23 PM

Venus direct in Pisces Saturday April 12th 9:03 PM

Spiritual actions can be expected, if not then religious actions can be expected, if not then actions based on delusional fantasies can be expected. Delusions and fantasies which are interfering with an individuals independent sovereign presence will be hi-lighted in some way, assuming the individual is ripe and ready to move beyond this. Feelings can trigger actions with individual's either way. Could be a fantasy role from a childhood story or an ideal romantic match up, or the perfect job. All these things, from what paradigm are they based? Spiritual matters may be hy-jacked by religion, or some rebel activity may be hy-jacking religion? Established ideas and notions which define one's ideal romance or partnership interaction may be replaying, passions from one's past occupying one's attention? The patterns of our life, depending upon current relationship dynamics, can change. But first old attachments, in terms of ideals, must be resolved and let go of. A feeling that one is supposed to be a certain way within a partnership or that another is projected with an expectation, these things imply a belief system or a specific paradigm. Can be family to family or community to community or country to country all partnerships are called to be empathic and compassionate toward each other, to be realistic. Not doing so will drown the abuser in their own dysfunctional delusion. If real harmony and the congruency are not found the off resonance can be challenging and even defeating. Many are also finding their empathy and compassion and are making important decisions and choices where they are acknowledging the spiritual truth of life in oneself and this acknowledging to include the spiritual presence of others. Our connection with the Earth, how real is it? Is It a delusion? If we believe the Earth is a living entity and that she is hosting our organic experience, providing resources and reality for our human experience, then we can accept this as real, it is up to the individual.

08 Sunday April 13th - Moon enters Scorpio 9:55 AM

The Moon's Scorpio ingress and transit can act as a significant trigger bringing to action pending intentions which until this time seem to have been caught in the wings. Could this be the trigger? A concern for control prompts an action which connects to an already major potential of energy, it will take more to stop it once it is triggered, it's like a self propelling machine. Agressive actions cannot occur without a flood of highest order compassion being released. Many will get their own private trigger which will lead to an increase in emotional energy, also partnership will get their own trigger as well, as well as communities and countries. Collectively our individual sovereign will is also connecting and aligning with our own personal spiritual fiduciary. Think of it as a cosmic ambassador directly connecting the individual to Creator's resonance in a direct pure way. This will be unique for each individual, there are many possibilities as to how the individual will experience this. Yet in some way the higher orders of self are being overlaid with our local human self. Individuals who visit their heart regularly or live there will feel this big time. Those who think they are their head will also experience this yet for them it can seem more challenging and perhaps confusing. And yet this can also be a wonderful opportunity as whatever false control is limiting the sovereign individual it is this which will be brought forward in their emotional body so they can seize it, own it, and deal with it. Once the individual human is aware of their power this is all a piece of cake. You can't help but feel an inspired enthusiasm for these coming times!

09 Tuesday April 15th - Moon enters Sagittarius 10:38 PM

Mercury ingress Aries Wednesday April 16th 2:26 AM

Mars ingress Leo Friday April 18th 12:22 AM

Welcome to a world of truth. Individuals have the potential to tune into and discover ideas which can assist many. Important people who need to reveal their significance may be surprised as to who else is there in a significant role. Many things are changing or catching up. The ideas are many and the communications fierce, what is up? Ideally the individual will be aware, with confidence, that delusion is being busted, sunk by it's own folly. Public appearance and public value can become more important to the individual, as the Moon transits Sagittarius. How people behave or interact socially, especially within one's immediate circle, can seem to be more important than usual. If an individual feels there is something uncomfortable during a typical interaction they may speak up in a way which was not expected. A wisdom typically not present in an individuals character, typically talks a lot but not a lot to say, shows up? Offering insight into a situation which is masterful and much finer than usual. Where did that come from? A sense that individuals must be fair with one another can act as a trigger bringing to one's immediate attention a solution which is obviously beneficial to all involved. Diplomacy as a priority is present in the words and ideas of many individuals. A better plan may come forward. Also a resistance and a refusal to be directed can be a reaction to too much surveillance, as in parents over directing their kids. Being publicly humiliated can cause a reaction as again this indicates public reputation. Ideally the individual will search their concerns and feelings and identify why they are being called to feel concern about public experiences. We may ask ourselves if we can become involved in a helpful way. Imagine it, one simple idea which is beneficial to many others.

10 Friday April 18th - Moon enters Capricorn 10:13 AM

Sun ingress Taurus Saturday April 19th 3:57 PM

"Love is in the air." Although there can be a sense of panic relating to practical and real things which must be done there is also a gentle falling into acceptance. Perhaps it is a compelling notion which triggers a feeling of fondness. An attraction to the untrue can also be lurking. We need to be vigilant as we consider things thoroughly which seem like they could be fake or lies. In our acceptance of what is real we may be called to follow the logic which parallels what we are being expected to consider. Moving ahead without compassion and feeling can almost be impossible, the ability to tune into one's task must be done with the emotional self. Those who do this anyway, make decisions with their heart, will notice things are better than ever, hold an intention and then bingo, manifestation, it's all in the empathy and compassion. With Mercury cozy in there as well our heads will be weird if we don't accept the boundless quality of things. Logic can be self defeating even when functioning at it's very best in the face of this Pisces presence. As the Moon transits Capricorn the Saturn goto planet, where is it, off in Pisces, good grief how is one to build their world, great if you're a fish. None the less it is here and perhaps now the individual will be encouraged to follow a spiritual path as a foundation and voila there he is Saturn ready with feeling empathy vulnerability and compassion. All is not lost, all is to be gained, humans feel and so humans rule!

11 Sunday April 20th - Moon enters Aquarius 7:23 PM

Resonating with Aquarius energy can be satisfying right now, with Pallas Athena entertaining the world, and with Jupiter's help. Jupiter, transiting Gemini, trine to Pallas Athena is like Pallas Athena having it's own publishing company. Pallas Athena in Aquarius can spell out social solutions. Look for social decisions to be published in an expansive way. We may see real solutions as Pallas Athena is an asset in this area for sure, she's a great diplomat and very cool. So some individuals will play this role of the wise Pallas Athena, others will broadcast it out being Jupiter in Gemini. Uranus, Aquarius planetary ruler, indicates shocking changes to our shared foundation with the current Taurus transit. As our steadiness requires an integration with this unusual quality within our basic foundation we must be ready to expect the unexpected, be ready for sudden changes involving our security and comfort. Yet the most profound changes are indicated via Pluto's Aquarius transit, we are looking at two decades of relentless social change. Who we are as an outer collective society, locally as a community and globally as a community, is just now beginning a complete overhaul. As the Moon transits Aquarius we will most likely see this occurring. We may have witnessed or have been a part of a social transformation, and now we can sit back and say well I am so glad that is over. But it is not, this social change will be relentless and will be many times more difficult to deal with if the individual refuses to make the changes that it is obvious they need to make. What we had historically become use to, well some of these things will need to be let go of. If the individual is seeing social change they would be wise to remember their our personal significance, doing so can protect the individual and assist them at making choices which will navigate them through difficulties simple by creating harmony in their future as opposed to casting their past into their future.

The individual who is able to be self responsible, their experiences, their journey, will be exciting and challenging, a valued experience, they may become accidental leaders.

12 Wednesday April 23rd - Moon enters Pisces 1:08 AM

Now that Mars is transiting Leo and is currently in opposition to Pluto in Aquarius the corrections will come. These will be corrections to personal actions and intentions. This can act as an important and valuable character adjustment. If the individual is experiencing being blocked, their efforts and ideas their actions, they may be triggered to look into their own personal self esteem. It all depends on how an individual interprets an opposition. Our personal significance may over time build our confidence. If there is a flaw in our understanding we can be sure the opposition will trigger some sort of serious consideration. If not then all is well and this individual is likely living their confidence, their presence and actions a natural inspiration to others. If we do have to adjust our demeanor then as long as we can remain in a self respecting position we will be good. However if one is feeling confused and challenged, and as this is a Pisces Moon transit, the individual will need to look at their paradigm and what they have been giving energy to. If false fake phony boloney has been discovered then there is no turning back, giving this energy knowing what it is will be a major disaster. Instead the individual would be wise to revamp what they they are doing by simply upgrading their understanding of the shared paradigm. There are many paradigms right now being given energy as if they were some kind of universal truth, yet they are not. As these wanning truths attempt to survive they end up taking each other out. They are not Universal truths they are local truths and this must become obvious to the evolving sovereign individual as they can not begin giving these false things energies without calling in disaster. On the bright side those who truly do wield sovereignty they will be a force to be reckoned with, even if they are one hundred percent anonymous. These evolved humans act as impeccable keepers of frequency.

13 Friday April 25th - Moon enters Aries 3:25 AM

Mars in Leo remains in opposition to Pluto in Aquarius. The Moon's Aries ingress can trigger individuals who feel they need to take some sort of survival action now. Calmer heads prevail may be a preferred mantra as opposition is not defeatable if an individual cannot own their specific responsibilities. Before an individual does something extreme if they can just take a moment to say, "will I regret this?" On the other hand if an individual is steady and consistent at owning their challenges as if they are creating them themselves it's a piece of cake, what a stark difference. With Saturn Venus conjunction in Pisces a fondness for empathic authority can be spurred. I love my boss, or will it be, I love being a boss because I am so nice to everyone, take your pick. Or something completely different like I feel attracted to my religious authority, or spiritual authority is considered with optimistic expectation. Leadership which is expansive in it's consideration, as in being considerate toward the feeling of others, may come forward as well. Chiron also transiting Aries indicates a connection to action and courage which has an insight into the spiritual significance of the actions. Chiron can act as a two way ambassador bringing the higher frequencies of one's self to the local human as well as bringing understanding of the local human to it's higher frequency energetic identity.

14 Sunday April 27th - Moon enters Taurus 3:18 AM

Uranus wields truth like a sword, and when it moves with intention there is no heads up, you just have to be in integrity to avoid immediate and possible dramatic change. Integrity and Uranus work very well together, in this case changes free the individual on a level which is simple not reachable by negative entities of any type. When a real human is impeccable with self love they are untouchable, and Uranus is liken to having one's own personal EXCALIBUR! With the new Moon later today, 3:32 PM EST, the individual is offered a connection or resonance with abundance. Steadiness and security come from knowing the territory under our feet and from our love for what is there in our physical world. Pollution and bad ideas have corrupted our beautiful Earth world and now we have the responsibility to clean it up. We do this by holding space and being within the resonance of the Earth's renewal. A focus on environmental renewal will correlate when humanity en mass begining to acknowledge the Earth as a provider. This includes being a steward for the Earth and holding a protective space for all her hosted creatures. Our abundance is assured when we are in the loop. Uranus will bring truth, and with the sustained Taurus transit our ideas of where abundance and comfort from can be quickly changed, don't blink.

- 01 My connection with the spirit realms continues to align me with clarity.
- 02 My confident actions have lead me to new opportunities.
- 03 My family works well together.
- 04 I love participating in organic creative expressions with others.
- 05 I am prioritizing time with my family.
- 06 I can feel my spiritual self increasingly present within my experiences.
- 07 I am in Love with humanity because I am accepting and loving myself.
- 08 Creator offers me freedom, I accept.
- 09 I am a confident warrior.
- 10 Everything I do is enjoyable for me because it is all connected.
- 11 I know nobody will save me, which is okay because I don't need to be saved.
- 12 I feel like I am being drawn to remember Creator.
- 13 Things come to me when I need them, it is a magical life!
- 14 Everybody always gets exactly what they need.
- 15 Just because it looks like a person doesn't mean it's human.
- 16 My acceptable agenda came to me via my heart.
- 17 Mind control was fun and games for some however it's time for me to turn on the lights.
- 18 I love spending time with family, doing things, fun things and productive things.
- 19 When my friends and family don't listen to me I speak to them with love esthetically.
- 20 I allow my higher self to gentle interrupt me if I am naively moving in a destructive direction.
- 21 I will love you no matter what!
